

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my profound gratitude to my teacher and supervisor Professor Palas R. Sengupta, Department of Commerce, North Bengal University for his guidance, advice, constant encouragement and help. I am truly blessed to have him as my supervisor. His wisdom is without end. My knowledge of research has been enhanced greatly because of him. He helped me to grow personally and professionally.

I am indebted to the University Grants Commission for awarding me Teacher Fellowship to complete my research work. I am grateful to the Fr. Dr. P. J. Victor, Principal of St. Joseph's College, Darjeeling for allowing me to avail the teacher fellowship for two years.

I am deeply indebted to the teachers and staff of Commerce Department and also the authorities of North Bengal University for providing me the necessary facilities to carryout the research.

I am grateful to Prof. Manas Dasgupta for providing valuable information on tea industry of India in general and tea industry of North Bengal in particular. I express my gratitude to Mr. Ranjan Gupta, Lecturer, Prof. Nurul Hasan Centre for Management Studies, University of North Bengal for helping me understand the nitty-gritty of statistics.

I am also thankful to IIM, Calcutta for allowing me to use their library facilities and also providing accommodation in the campus.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Miss Bandana Mukhia, Ex-assistant Secretary and Mr. Sanjiv Seth, Secretary, Darjeeling Tea Association, Darjeeling, Mr. U. B. Das, Secretary, Terai Branch Indian Tea Association, P. O. Bagdogra, Dist. Darjeeling, Mr. Mohini Das , Secretary, Terai Indian Planters' Association, P. O. Matigara, Dist. Darjeeling, Mr. P. K. K. Dutta, Branch Secretary, Tea Association of India (North Bengal Branch),

P. O. Ethelbari, Dist. Jalpaiguri for introducing me to the managers of their respective member gardens and also providing other necessary information on tea industry .

I wish to express my heartiest gratitude to officers and staff of the Office of Assistant Labour Commissioner of Darjeeling and Siliguri for their kind cooperation and assistance in collecting secondary data.

I acknowledge my debt to managers, assistant managers, labour officers, head clerks and other staff of all 50 tea gardens who provided me with necessary help and cooperation.

I am greatly indebted to numerous tea garden workers who voluntarily agreed to answer my queries and provided me with primary data used in this study.

I enjoyed and profited by many stimulating conversations with fellow research scholars at Men's Research Scholars Hostel, North Bengal University.

I am thankful to my wife, Namita Rai, who looked after the family while I was away from home for almost two years. My two children Saloni and Shovan are my constant source of inspiration.

To those of you whose names I did not remember to mention – thank you and god's blessings upon you.
