

Contents

	Page
Acknowledgement	i-ii
Preface	iii-v
Chapter - I
Introduction	1-9
Chapter - II
The Roots of Division : The Hindu Socio-Religious Hierarchy	10-27
♦ The Social Psychology of the four Ashramas
♦ The Bramacharyasrama
♦ The Garhasthasrama
♦ The Vanaprashasrama
♦ Sannyas
♦ The Four Varnas
♦ Jatis
♦ The Mixed Castes
♦ Four Orders
♦ The Brahaman
♦ The Kshatriya
♦ The Vaishya
♦ The Shudra
Chapter - III
Socio-Economic, Cultural and Political Conditions of the Untouchables in India	28-76
♦ Homo hierarchicus and Caste Hierarchy
♦ The Untouchables and their Different Groups
♦ The Primitive Tribes
♦ Criminal Classes
♦ Criminal Tribes
♦ The Untouchables and Others
♦ The Untouchables what not: British India and Indian India

- ◆ Impurity and Untouchability
- ◆ Untouchables Vs Negros and Slaves
- ◆ The Origin of Untouchability
- ◆ Problems of Untouchability

Chapter - IV

B. R. Ambedkar and the Socio-Cultural Reforms in Hindu Society 77-123

- ◆ Early Life and Education : the shaping of Revolutionary Mind
- ◆ Influence of Protestant Religions and Reformers on Ambedkar
- ◆ Impact of his teachers on Ambedkar's Ideas
- ◆ Ambedkar's Building of the Horizons of Ideas of Socio-Cultural Reforms.
- ◆ Ambedkar's Study of Riddles in Hinduism
- ◆ The Genesis of Socio-Cultural Ethos :
 - ◆ First Mahar Parishad, 1920
 - ◆ The Dharmantar Parishad
- ◆ Reforms in Action :
 - ◆ Mahad Tank Satyagraha
 - ◆ Temple Entry Movement
 - ◆ Mahar Watan
- ◆ The Mahars and their Movements

Chapter - V

Ambedkar's Fights For Human Rights 124-164

- ◆ Neglect of Depressed Classes by the British
- ◆ Resistance to Indian National Congress
- ◆ Seminal Ideas of Rights
- ◆ Efforts to raise the level of Education and Culture
- ◆ Major Landmarks in the Political Struggle of Untouchables
- ◆ Annexure
- ◆ Cabinet Mission Plan, 1946
- ◆ The Constituent Assembly
- ◆ The Constitution of India, 1950
- ◆ The Hindu Code and the Uplift of Women

Chapter - VI

Ambedkar and Labour Welfare 165-187

- ◆ The Indian Labour Conference and the Standing Labour Committee
- ◆ Labour Laws
- ◆ The Chief Labour Commissioner's Organisation set up

- ◆ The Labour Investigating Committee
- ◆ Machinery For fixing Minimum Wages
- ◆ Standing Orders in Industrial Establishment
- ◆ Recognition of Trade Unions
- ◆ Untouchability as a Social Theory for Labour Exploitation

Chapter - VII

Ambedkar and the Education of the Untouchable 188-201

- ◆ The Peoples' Education Society
- ◆ Commemorative Projects
- ◆ Ambedkar's Concern for Dalit Education
- ◆ Ambedkar's Basic Educational Philosophy: Various Facets

Chapter - VIII

The Neo-Buddhist Movement 202-231

- ◆ Background
- ◆ The Conversion Ceremony
- ◆ Ambedkar's 'Navayana' (New Vehicles) of Buddhism
- ◆ Critics of Conversion
- ◆ Ambedkar's 'Navayana' and Traditional Buddhism their Differences
- ◆ Conversion as Psychological Transformation

Chapter - IX

Protest As an Ideology : An Urge For Social Change 232-273

- ◆ Dhamma and the Marxist Class Struggle
- ◆ The Neo-Buddhist Movement As a Protest
- ◆ Ambedkar's Rationalisation of Religious Concepts
- ◆ Guiding Principles of Ambedkar
- ◆ Gandhi and Ambedkar, and the Questions of Untouchable
- ◆ Savarkar and Ambedkar
- ◆ Protest Ideology and Emancipation from Exploitation
- ◆ The Flowering of Dalit Culture and Literature
- ◆ Was the Neo-Buddhist Movement inevitable ?

The Resume 274-279

Bibliography 280-289