

Contents

Preface	i
Acknowledgement	ii-iv
Chapter I	1-27
Introduction Word-World Relationship: A Fundamental Problem in Philosophy of Language
Chapter II	28-96
Word-World Relationship: An Exposition of the Views of Some Analytic Philosophers
Chapter III	97-121
A Phenomenological Account of Language and Meaning
Chapter IV	122-136
Austin's Speech Act Theory and Its Phenomenological Interpretation
Chapter V	137-153
Some Recent Developments in Speech Act Theory
Chapter VI	154-179
Concluding Remarks
Select Bibliography	180-205