

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The study titled “The Kamarupa Anusandhan Samiti in Historical Perspectives (1912 A.D.-1993 A.D.)” is the outcome of my research work to be submitted for Ph.D. degree of the University of North Bengal, Raja Rammohanpur, Dist. Darjeeling (West Bengal).

The present work is a study with micro level approaches which neither demands full credit for new discoveries nor is a major break-through in the study of history of “Kamarupa Anusandhan Samiti in Historical Perspectives”. It is a humble attempt to re-search the comprehensive history of the institution, which in some points is fully introductory in nature and shows some scope of study in future. Constructive criticism in this respect is always welcome.

Owing to some technicalities it was found in convenient to provide the diacritical marks to the old terms and names used in this work. Such terms/names with diacritical marks are shown in a list after the List of the Tables.

A research work is an open ended academic voyage. A collective effort is always working as an inspiring factor behind the culmination of a positive result of the voyage. Therefore, one should acknowledge the support and assistance received at the different levels in course of the study.

I have no words to express my deep gratitude and acknowledge my indebtedness to my revered Guide and Supervisor Dr. I. Sarkar, Professor and former Head of the Department of History, University of North Bengal, Raja Rammohanpur, for his constant encouragement and able guidance and supervision all throughout the execution of the present work. I am also thankful to all the faculty members of the department of History of the same university for providing me necessary help and assistance.

It is my pleasure to thank the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Kamarupa Anusandhan Samiti, Guwahati, for providing me the necessary materials for completion of the study. At the same time I am also grateful to the Director, Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, the Director, Assam State Museum, and the Director, Assam State Archives for allowing me to make use of the materials at their disposal for my study.

I received immense help from the staff of National Archives of India, New Delhi, National Library, Kolkata, Library of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, Kolkata, Goethal Library, Kolkata, Granthagar (Central library) of University of North Bengal, K.K. Handique Library of University of Gauhati, Central Library of North Eastern Hill University, Shillong , the Library of Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR), Guwahati Regional Office, the Library of the Kamarupa Anusandhan Samiti, Library of Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, Library of Assam State Museum, Library of Assam Sahitya Sabha, Guwahati, District Library, Guwahati, Cotton College Library, Guwahati, and my own college(N.H. College, Patacharkuchi) Library. I must thank all the staff of these departments, offices and institutions.

I am grateful to my college authority and my colleagues who inspired me along, while the research was attaining the stage of completion. I am grateful to all those for their valuable suggestion and help. I am also thankful to the authors of those books/publications, which I have referred in my study.

I extend my deep sense of gratitude to my mother and all family members whose help and inspiration enable me to complete the work in time. It will be unjust on my part if I forget to appreciate my better half, Mrs. Anju Devi and son Rahul (Munu) who bear all the constraints and burdens of the family and eagerly waiting for the time for me to be free with them.

Last, but not least I am thankful to Mr Bubun Kumar Barman for providing necessary technical support for printing and binding of this work.

University of North Bengal
Raja Rammohanpur
Dist. Darjeeling (West Bengal)
Date. 24.8.2009

Tarun Chandra Bhagabati

(Tarun Chandra Bhagabati)

Research Scholar.

Department of History

Regn.No.150001 of 2007-08.