

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Any form of achievement owes its success to discipline, determination, focus and patience. All these are required while pursuing any study towards a Ph.D Thesis. A number of obstacles faced by one in completing such a study cannot be anticipated. In retrospect there are times when one loses sight of either one or all of the traits like discipline, determination, focus and patience, and this happened while I pursued the research work. It is these times when one requires support – support from family, friends, teachers, guides and elders. I would call myself fortunate to have received that encouragement from all, in times of need. It is this support, which has bolstered and re-affirmed my faith. It becomes my humble duty now, to acknowledge and thank everyone who provided moral and material support in completing a work of this magnitude.

I will always remain indebted to my parents – my father Late Subhas Kumar Banerjee who left for heavenly abode showered spiritual enthusiasm from above during the entire period and my mother Manjusri Banerjee, who kindly allowed me the spirit of ‘never-say-die’ even in the most trying times and that is why I am, what I am today. I express my gratitude to them once again, as ever.

I wish to put on record my gratitude for Prof. Maitreyee Choudhury – who supervised me in completing this study. Prof. Maitreyee, whom I can call a friend, philosopher and guide, relentlessly, with immense patience, supported me with her guidance and advice. I must admit – without her strong back-up behind me – this study could not have been completed. My absence from the field of academics for some time ever since I joined the corporate world had kept me out-of-touch and it was Prof. Maitreyee who guided me back into the groove. In more than one ways, it is actually her effort that saw this research through. Even during hard times, personally, she never appeared vulnerable. Her characteristics unfailing around remained intact. Prof. Maitreyee continued to prod me to complete the unfinished task. This made me doubly confident to prove her conviction.

Apart from the moral and material support that I received from the above mentioned persons, I must admit, a few, very strong, ‘behind-the-scene-hands’ propped me up in times of depression and maintained a conducive atmosphere throughout the pursuance of this study. I owe a great deal to them personally, that they ignored the hardships which they faced due to my neglect. I owe this study to these two lovely ladies so close to my heart – My Mother and my wife who have been pillars of my strength. It is my mother who is responsible for keeping me on the track by her words and deeds. And my wife Sheekha, who kept me away from the responsibilities of home to concentrate on my work, and helped me in drafting maps, figures and also assisted me in typing my thesis. I salute you, ladies.

My sincerest gratitude goes to Dr. Ravi Bhusan, Sr. Reader, Deptt. Of Tourism, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, to whom I owe all my success and motivation. I would also like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Durgadas Sarkar (Retd. Manager Treks, Darjeeling, Dept. of Tourism, Govt. of West Bengal) who rendered his guidance and help in the course of my study. I am grateful to all my teachers at the Center of Himalayan Studies for having encouraged me always to pursue and complete the present study.

A special acknowledgement to Ms. Alka Singh, a close friend of mine, who read the manuscript and extracts from it at various stages and gave me invaluable feedback. My sincere thanks must also be expressed to Mrs. Menoka Bhattacharya (Deputy Director, Dept. of Tourism, Darjeeling, Govt. of West Bengal), Mr. B. K. Mukhia (Asst. Director, Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council) for the invaluable help and assistance during the course of my survey. I wish to thank and acknowledge all the individuals and organizations who provided direct and indirect support in accomplishing my thesis.

I express my deepest gratitude to Mr. Raj (Suprathim) Basu, Director of Help Tourism who helped me in perusing my research work. Mr. Renzino Lepcha, an active member of ECOSS (a NGO) at Gangtok Sikkim, deserves special gratitude for his efforts in accomplishing my thesis in time. I would like to thank The Director, G. B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development (GBPIHED) Sikkim, Sikkim Biodiversity and Ecotourism Project whose valuable information and guidance helped me a lot in writing my thesis. There are many others without whose encouragement and help the research would not have been possible. Mridul Chokravorty of Discover India Tours and Travels was most helpful during my studies.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the patience and support of my elder brother Sumit Kr. Banerjee, sister-in-law Nilaya Banerjee and my sweet little nephew Sujan (Rig) Kr. Banerjee who endured me during their vacations and holidays, so this research could become a reality. It was my Dada Sumit Kr. Banerjee, who encouraged me to undertake this research work and without his help my thesis would not have been possible. Last but not the least, I would like to thank one of my special friends who consistently helped me in procuring data to get the work done in time. It would have been impossible to finish this work without the help of you all.

Sukanta Kr. Banerjee
