

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present research was started in 1985. The research was guided by Professor N.C. Choudhury (former Head, Sociology & Social Anthropology Department, North Bengal University), whom I can not thank amply and owe a deep sense of gratitude for his invaluable guidance and constant encouragement in the course of this work.

I am grateful to the Anthropological Survey of India (Calcutta), for providing me with a three years' fellowship and also the Indian Council of Social Science Research (New Delhi), for a Short Term Doctoral Fellowship to enable me to carry on this study.

I should also acknowledge here Dr. Sharit Bhawanik (Sociology Department, Delhi University), Mrs. N. Choudhury (Sociology & Social Anthropology Department, North Bengal University), Dr. Tanke B. Subba (Centre for Himalayan Studies, North Bengal University) and Dr. D. S. Bhattacharya (Education Department, Sikkim Government Degree College, Sikkim), for their encouragement given in various ways in the course of this research.

I am obliged to the authorities of the Education Department, Establishment Department, Sikkim Public Works Department, Sikkim Government Degree College, Sikkim Government

(ii)

Law College, Directorate of Census Operation, Government of India (Sikkim) and Teachers' Training Institute, Gangtok and many other district level authorities and officials of various departments of the State Government in Mangan, Gyalsing and Namchi, for their unstinted help in the collection of data.

Thanks are also due to Shri N.P.Boot (Centre for Himalayan Studies, North Bengal University) for drawing the map. The co-operation and help received from all respondents and informants are also gratefully acknowledged.

I would like to take this opportunity of recording my gratitude to Sarbashree Santa Pradhan, D.D. Sengupta, Dicchen Phigu Bhutia, S.K. Pradhan, D.B. Poudyal, G.P. Adhikary, B.B. Theeng, J.N.
