

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis represents a culmination of my field work in Darjeeling town and the learning that has taken place over a period of almost five years, starting as a Junior Research Fellow and finally at the end of submission as a Senior Research Fellow at the Centre for Himalayan Studies, University of North Bengal. It is a pleasure to thank the many people who made this thesis possible. First and foremost I want to thank my supervisor Prof. Sekh Rahim Mondal, whose encouragement, guidance and support from the initial to the final level enabled me to develop an understanding of the subject. It has been an honour to be a student of him. It is difficult to overstate my gratitude. I am heartily thankful to him.

I am really grateful to Prof. Mrs. Maitreyee Choudhury, Director, Centre for Himalayan Studies, North Bengal University for her assistance and cooperation which she extend to me during my stay at the Centre. I would also thankful to Prof. R Sahu, Dr. Karubaki Dutta, Dr. Ujjwal Bhui, Mr. Bidhan Golay, Dr. Debiprasad Boot, Mr. Harinath Poddar and our Documentation Officer Mr. Ajay Misra, for their valuable suggestions and co-operation. I also express my gratitude to our non teaching staffs Mrs. Munna Mangar and Chabi Ray Chowdhury for their positive approach and kind cooperation.

I have derived enormous personal benefit from my time spent at the study area Darjeeling town, both from the people who are living there and the Muslims who are the principal in this study. It is not possible for me to capsulate all the names and no word is enough for their sincere co-operation and positive attitude. Hence, I am only going to thank personally some people named Janab Md. Ali Akther, former secretary of Anjuman-E-Islamia, Md. Ramzan Butt, Md. Rashid Batt, Md. Mainuddin and a very wise and old Muslim fellow Janab Md.

Samad Ali who not only provide me information but also accompanying me almost every time of my visit and stay to Darjeeling town.

I am forever indebted to my parents, my grandmother and other members of my family for their understanding, endless patience and encouragement when it was most required. I am also grateful to my younger brothers Kapil, Indranil and Rudranil for their support.

Incalculable and inexpressible, however, is my debt to my friends Sourajit Roy, Akhileswar Prasad, Sousish Jha, Amit Jana and Panchali Sengupta for their continuous intellectual stimulation and scientific academic reviews of my writings.

Finally, I offer my regards to all of those who supported me in any respect during the completion of the thesis.
