

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Many persons have contributed in different ways to the research work presented in this thesis. I wish to express my thanks to all of them.

First of all, I wish to thank my supervisor Dr Joydeb Pal for his valuable guidance, continuous support and interest throughout the period of my work. Indeed words are inadequate to express my gratitude to him fully.

My sincere thanks to Head and all staff of the Department of Zoology, North Bengal University for their inspiration and kind support. I wish to thank Dr C.B. Sunwar, Principal of Sikkim Government College, Head and colleagues of Zoology Department, Sikkim Government College, who have cooperated so kindly in times of need during my work.

I got an opportunity to work at Institute of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology, Karlsruhe, Germany for one month during January-February, 2002. This was possible just because of kind invitation from Prof. Wilhelm H. Holzapfel, Director of this Institute through the Volkswagen Foundation support as visiting scientist. I extend my gratitude to Prof. Holzapfel for his support, suggestion and inspiration. I wish to extend my sincere thanks to Dr U. Schillinger of Institute of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology, who personally helped me to do few experiments at this Institute. I duly acknowledge the support of the Volkswagen Foundation.

I wish to acknowledge the special help and valuable suggestions provided by Dr Michio Kozaki, Professor Emeritus of Showa Women's University, Tokyo, who I met at Gangtok in 1999; Dr E. Sharma and Mr Suman Rai of ICIMOD, Kathmandu; Dr (Miss) Pushpa Tamang of SIRD, Karfectar; Dr. B.B. Rai of VHAS, Gangtok; Prof. G.U. Ahmad of Guwahati University during the course of my research.

I always support the idea of my teacher who inculcated the feeling of teamwork, because of which the work was completed. The team, who have played valuable part in helping me to set up experiments and operating instruments as well as in field work, and to whom I wish to thank in particular to Mr Sailendra Dewan, Mr Buddhiman Tamang, Mr Rudra Mani Sharma, Mr Suresh Tamang, Dr Saroj Thapa, Mr Bimal Rai, Miss Paramita Rai and Miss Hannah Yonzan. Some of my friends are always helpful, their encouragement to this work has been very valuable. I wish to thank them – Mrs Bina Pradhan, Mrs Sarika Pradhan, Dr (Mrs) Rita Sharma.

I owe special thanks to Mr M. Lepcha (mama) of Gidhang-tar in Kalimpong, Mr Santosh Subba of Gangtok, Mr. Prem Tamang and Mr Ravi of GBPIHED, Gangtok, Mr Palden Kazi of Aitabare, Mr Amit Mukhia of Chumerchen, Pedong, Mrs Daisy of Shillong, Mr K. Singh of Imphal for their ever-ready helping hands.

Finally, the most special folks of all: my family. Without constant support from my husband Dr Jyoti Prakash Tamang, my work would not have been finished. I express my deepest appreciation and loving thanks to my parents for supporting me throughout a long education. I have been given a special care in all these days by my mother-in-law, thanks. My thanks to my other family members Mangala, Ashweela, Sanjay, Tulsi, Ajanta, Sharad, Benoy, Awantika and Anshruta whose support and encouragement were always available when I needed them the most.

During the preparation of this thesis, period of changes in my life occurred. Someway it was a gift, a baby-boy Ashwaath, my second baby was born and otherway, it was a loss to my family, and my father-in-law expired. I wished to show the thesis to him, who always used to inspire me to complete the work. This thesis is dedicated to him.
