

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This is the outcome for research, for my Doctoral Degree, on the health care practices on the Oraon tribal community, inhabiting in Bāṁangola Block, in the District Malda, West Bengal.

At the very outset, I express my sincere and deep gratitude to my guide, Prof. Ranjit Kumar Bhadra, Department of Sociology, University of North Bengal, for his scholarly and inspiring guidance all through my research work. Despite of his very busy schedule, he not only devoted time for my work, but also given constant encouragement, valuable advice and inspiration at various stages of this research.

I am also thankful to all my teachers and the faculty members, namely Prof. Rajat S. Mukhapadhyaya, Dr. Sanjay Roy, Reader, Dr. (Mrs.) Saswati Biswas, Reader, Dr. (Mrs) Mita Bhadra, Reader, of the Department of Sociology, University of North Bengal for their encouragement. I am specially grateful to Dr. (Mrs.) Mita Bhadra, Reader, for her constant inspirations and encouragement for completion of my research.

I also render my sincere thanks and gratitude to my Principal, Dr. Atin Bhattacharya, Pakuahat Degree College, Malda, for his support and encouragement and allowing me to do my research work. I am also very thankful to all my colleagues, of different disciplines, Pakuahat Degree College, for their support.

I am specially thankful to the President, Sri Jibendra Nath Bagchi., Governing Body Pakuahat Degree College. My specially thanks to Sri Sailen Sarkar, former President, Governing Body, Pakuahat Degree College, for allowing me to carry out this research. I am also thankful to all the members of the Governing Body, Pakuahat Degree College.

I extend my gratitude to the Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Kolkata for giving me permission to use ASI library. My sincere thanks to all the library staff of the ASI, Kolkata, who provided me with valuable study material for my work.

I am thankful to to the staff of the central library University of North Bengal for their co-operation and help in making available study materials for my research work.

My whole hearted thanks to my ex-student and assistant, Sri Paritosh Bhowmik for helping me all through the field work. I also extend thanks to Dipak Ekka, Telesphore Toppo and Pujanjali Sarkar for rendering help in various ways in connection with this research.

I also render thanks to Sri Gouranga Mandal, Clerk, Pakuahat Degree College, for doing the entire compilation of the thesis in the computer.

I extend my thanks to the B.M.H.O., Bamangola Block, for proving information regarding infrastructure facilities in the hospital and other information regarding health issues of the area. I am also thankful to all the Panchayat Members of the villages for their co-operation and help during my field work.

My thanks and gratitude to all the members of the Orion community. I always remember them with gratitude, their hospitality and co-operation extended to me during my field work, with out which it would have been impossible to complete my research. I am very indebted to them all.

I am also specially thankful to my friend Mr. Livinus Kujur and Mrs. Margaret Kujur, Bidhanpally, Shibmandir, for providing comfortable accommodation when ever, I went to the University of North Bengal for my research work.

I am also really thankful to all my family members, specially my wife Dipali and my daughter Michelle for their whole hearted help, co-operation and support who made a lot of sacrifices all through the research work.

Sri John Breakmas Tirkey,
Sr. Lecturer in Sociology,
Pakuahat Degree College