I take this opportunity to express my first and foremost sincerest gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. B. Basu, Professor, Department of Chemistry, North Bengal University, Darjeeling, who has supported me throughout my thesis with his patience and knowledge whilst allowing me the room to work in my own way. His way of searching to get out of problems has made him as a constant oasis of ideas and passions in science, which exceptionally inspire and enrich my growth as a student, a researcher and a scientist that I want to be. I am and will be thankful to him more than he knows. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D study.

I am very much thankful to my family members, my parents, my brother and sisters and my friend Amitava Mandal and the omnipresent God, for answering my prayers, for giving me the strength. Without their constant support I would never have been able to finish my research work.
