

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis script would not have seen the light of day if almighty God have not enabled me to accomplish and a number of people had not assisted, inspired and motivated me. In all humility, I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to them.

First and foremost, my sincere thanks to Dr. Kalyan Kumar De and Dr. Aniruddha Saha, my supervisors for their painstaking support, ultra patience and expertise in the work. I am privileged to be their student.

Darjeeling Government College, Darjeeling will forever is etched in my heart for the generosity and acceptance extended to me by the members of teaching staffs, Dr. Binod Chandra Sharma (Head, Department of Botany), Sri Narayan Chandra Karmakar, Dr. Projjwal Chandra Lama, Dr. Dhani Raj Chettri, Dr. Mousumi Mukhopadhyay, Dr. Kausik Majumder, Dr. Vivekananda Mandal, Sri Ashok Ghosh and all the non-teaching staffs. I am thankful to Mrs. Swapna Chettri, Department of Zoology for her support. I express my absolute thanks to Dr. Dorjay Lama, St. Joseph's College, Darjeeling for the motivation, encouragement and unstinting efforts to focus my mind when I was losing my way in the areas of my research.

I owe a debt of modest gratitude towards Dr. A. Sen (Head, Department of Botany), Prof. A.P.Das, Prof. B.N. Chakraborty, Prof. P.K. Sarkar, Prof. (Mrs.) U. Cakraborty, Dr. S.C. Roy and Mr. P. Mandal of Department of Botany, University of North Bengal, for their support, generosity, valuable advice throughout the course and completion of my work. I remain ever grateful to Dr. (Mrs.) Dipanwita Saha, Sr.Lecturer, Department of Biotechnology for her help and encouragement.

I convey my thanks to co-scholars, Mr. Bilok Sharma, Ms. Sabina Pradhan, Mrs. Bimala Rai, Mr. Bikram Saha, Ms. Madhumita Poddar, Ms. Dipti Pradhan, Mrs. Rashi Subba, Mrs. Sujata Kalikotay, Mrs. Sacina Yonzon, Ms. Basundhara Tamang and Mr. Dipen Ghimiray for their thoughtfulness, support and humor during my work. I will remain thankful to Khagen Roy for his endless help.

I am very much grateful towards (Late) Mr. Madan Tamang for the vista of knowledge that he allowed to me to access from his personal library and also for allowing me the experimental materials and space to work in his enormous garden, undisturbed. My experimental materials were generously bestowed on me by Mr. T. Pempahishey and his family of Holumba, Kalimpong, further assisted me in collection of specimens for which I will ever be thankful with Mr. Udai Chandra Pradhan of Kalimpong and Mr. Rampal of Orchid Centre, Darjeeling. I am thankful to Mr. Aditya Raya and Mr. Norbu Lama as all the photographs have been aesthetically laid out by them.

I wish to thank my parents, my loving aunt Ms. Sabita Tuladhar, for being my backbone and keeping me upright throughout my livelihood, my brother Mr. Suraj Tamang, without him the usual impact of the final draft of this manuscript would not have been achieved, and all the members of my family for standing beside me through the many years of study. They have been so understanding, caring, patient and encouraging. Their supportive love has carried me to this point in my academic career and in life as well.

Finally, in deepest gratitude and love, I wish to dedicate this humble effort of mine to my grandparents –Mr. Tri Ratna Tuladhar and (Late) Mrs. Amrita Tuladhar.
