

Acknowledgements

I am sincerely grateful to my respected supervisor Dr. Abhaya Prasad Das, Professor, Department of Botany, North Bengal University, whose innovative and unprejudiced attitude has given me an insight into the field of Ethnobotany. I will always remain indebted for his constant encouragement and unfailing co-operation.

I would like to place in record my sincere gratitude to my uncle Dr. T.K. Paul, Scientist, Botanical Survey of India, Howrah for his appreciation and encouragement.

I am thankful to the traditional knowledge holders and local guides from Mech community, Ramesh Suba (Narjeenary) and Dhira Gabur, who helped me in many ways during my field work, sacrificing their valuable time. I would like to express thanks to all people of Mech community who shared their traditional knowledge, specially the herbalists without their help my research work was not at all possible. I specially remember Satish Narjeenary, Dhanabir Champramari, Surendra Basumata, Brajendra Basumata, Bhaben Champramari, Bolen Boro, Anita Bramha and Bablu Gabur for showing interest in my work.

I am grateful to all teachers of the Department of Botany, North Bengal University for their constant support and valuable suggestions.

I am greatly indebted to my lab-mates Dr. Chandra Ghosh, Animesh Sarkar, Dr. Monoranjan Choudhury, Sonam R. Lepcha, Rajib Biswas, Goutam Saha, Suman Nirola, Kishor Biswas, Anand Lama, Saurav Moktan, Dibakar Choudhury, Anurag Choudhury and Amallesh Bijali. I thank them for creating and maintaining a highly professional attitude towards the research activities and at the same time maintaining a homely environment in the laboratory.

I offer thanks to all staffs of Garden of Medicinal Plants, namely Wazed Ali, Eqramul Ali, Papai Samaddar, Biplob Sarkar, Sanjib Banik, Manu Mondal and Bijoya Biswas for their support. I also thank to Binod Singha, Lab-Attendant of Taxonomy and Environmental Biology Laboratory, Department of Botany.

I wish to record my appreciation to my friends Ritesh Biswa, Dr. Sikta Banerjee, Sradha Rai and Srijana Subba for their moral support. Special thanks goes to Ritesh Biswa, he had immensely helped me in arranging of photographs and maps. I would like to express my appreciation to Kunjani Rai and Lakpa Tamang for helping me in preparing the maps.

I am thankful to my brother Major Dr. Pragyajyoti Roy, Base Hospital, Barrakpur and to Dr. Amarendra Nath Sarkar, Associate Professor, North Bengal Medical College for helping me to understand the different types and symptoms of diseases.

I owe a great sense of gratefulness to Mrs. Ruby Das for her motherly love and affection and I would like to express indebtedness to my dearest brother Sri Sanwit Das for his good wishes.

Words are not enough for expressing my heartiest gratitude towards my loving parents, Sri Dulal Sarkar and Smt. Mamata Sarkar for their moral support and encouragement throughout my studies. I am indebted to my uncles Amalendu Sarkar and Dr. Biman Chowdhury in the similar way.

My adoring thanks to my elder brother, the best friend, Abhijit Sarkar for his unconditional love and moral support during the whole course. He is the constant source of inspiration and motivation throughout my studies. I express my deep love and appreciation for my sister-in-law Silpi Sarkar and my affectionate nephew Adreet Sarkar who extended love and care to build up my confidence during the all period of research work.

Place: North Bengal University

Date: 12.07.2011

Ajita Sarkar
[Ajita Sarkar]