

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise is to God who granted me the urge and ability to seek knowledge of His creation.

With much inspiration from my respected guide, Prof. Tapas Kumar Chaudhuri, Cellular Immunology Lab, Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal, I ventured to accept the task of completing this work so I owe him a deep sense of gratitude. His sincere effort and zeal helped me in completing this work within a strict time frame. I regard myself as very fortunate in having had the benefits of his guidance and help in transforming my transcript into a finished text.

I feel highly obliged to my co-guide Dr. Nirmal Kumar Bera, Department of Psychiatry, North Bengal Medical College and Hospital, for his advice and motivation from time to time throughout the preparation of this work. I am also grateful to him for introducing me to the fascinating field of psychiatry. I am indeed indebted to him for his contributions in elevating this work to its present form and structure.

I would always be thankful to 'University Grants Commission' for supporting the study financially (Award letter no:Ref No:48-96/D 2006).

I wish to record my gratitude to Prof. Jaideb Pal (the then Head of the Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal) for extending the facilities from the Department during the study. I am also indebted to teachers of Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal Prof. Ananda Mukhopadyaya, Prof. Sudip Barat, Dr. Min Bahadur, Dr. Soumen Bhattacharya and Mr Dhiraj Saha for their support.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Sujit Kumar Das (Head of the Department of Psychiatry, North Bengal Medical College and Hospital) for extending all possible facilities of the department and thus inculcating within me the basics of the psychiatry. I am also thankful to the doctors of the Department of Psychiatry Dr. Mrinal Kumar Bhattacharya, Dr. Santanu De for their kind cooperation during the study.

I present my deepest regards to Dr. Chitta R. Nayak (the then Head of the Department of Computer Science, University of North Bengal) for his contributions in the study.

It is worth mentioning, that at the time of contemplating this work, valuable suggestions were given by my seniors Dr. Monojit Debnath, Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Srivastava, Mr. Bikash Mitra and Miss Sikta Bandopadhyay, to whom I will ever remain grateful. I would like to mention the names of my fellow scholars, Mr. Manoj Lama and Mr Pokhraj Guha, whom I would wish to acknowledge too. Thanks are due to my colleagues in the Research Scholars Hostel for boosting my spirit.

I am also greatly indebted to the following eminent personalities Dr. T.C. Nag (AIIMS) and Prof. X.Y.Zhang (Institute of Mental Health, Beijing Medical University, Beijing) for sending me the research papers.

During the three year period, I have certainly ignored my family. I am really grateful to them for standing by me through thick and thin. I am always blessed and strengthened by the unconditional support and love from my parents, brothers, sisters and sister in law. I am thankful to them for having the belief in me that my effort would turn worthwhile. Special mention must be made of my mother, who had always dreamt of me, achieving the higher feet, without her blessings I would not have been able to complete this work. May God always bless her soul.

I express my indebtedness to my teachers, Dr. Willie Henry and Mrs. Swapna Chettri (Kaur), Dept of Zoology, Darjeeling Govt. College, for being a guiding force besides, their inspiration and sincere support.

I take this opportunity to thank Mr. Moazzam Ali and Mr. Ganesh Majumdar, who have rendered all possible help for completing this work.

It is a special pleasure for me to acknowledge my friends Miss Sangeeta Darnal, Mrs. Ritu Rai, Miss Ajita Sarkar, Miss Sarita Lama, Mr. Indranil Roy who have always provided me the moral support and constant inspiration.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not express my thanks to all the volunteers for their patience and co-operation for donating blood during the study.

In general, the preparation and the writing of my work have been aided by the stimulus and help provided by several scientists, who have sent their research articles and have delivered their constructive criticisms on my manuscripts, I am extremely obliged to them.
