

P R E F A C E

The present project was undertaken in view of its importance which has been pointed out very briefly in Chapter I of this dissertation.

The present investigator is extremely grateful to his teacher, DR. S. N. Bhattacharya of Maulana Azad College, Calcutta - 700 013, for his guidance, encouragement, help and co-operation at every stage of this project. Words perhaps, are insufficient to express the real sentiments of the present investigator in this regard.

He is also thankful to all the respondents in the sample area for their co-operation, help, etc. without which, needless to mention, however, the present study would not see the light of the day. Moreover, he is also thankful to different officials and non-officials who this way or that way, co-operated with him in the completion of the present study.

He is thankful to the authorities of the North Bengal University for encouragement and co-operation to complete this work.

He is thankful to Shri Dulal Nandi who has taken all the troubles to type the manuscript of the present dissertation with much care and devotion.
