

Acknowledgements

I am highly grateful to my supervisor, Dr Arun Kanti Jana, Head, Department of Political Science, University of North Bengal, under whom I had the privilege of carrying out my research work for the award of PhD in Political Science. It was he who kindled in me the interest of academic research and supervised my work of PhD at each and every step.

I gratefully acknowledge my profound sense of gratitude to Shri Sanchaman Limboo, former Chief Minister of Sikkim (1994) and two-termed Minister (1979-1989) for providing me all sorts of important documents and records which were relevant for my research work. Procurement of relevant documents from Shri Limboo relating to SSP party and Limboo community of Sikkim had been of great importance during the course of my research.

I also express my deep sense of gratitude to Shri B B Muringla, Retired Additional Director for allowing me to use his personal library at his residence in Lingchom for the purpose of my research. I am equally grateful to Yap Captain Sonam Yongda, Director of DPCA for providing me all sorts of support and constantly inspiring me to go for further after the completion of my study in his institution, Denjong Padma Choeling Academy. My thanks are due to Dr M P Thapa, Principal, Namchi Govt. College and Ms Narmaya Subba, Assistant Professor, Limboo Department, NGC for bearing all the inconveniences caused by my absence in the college during the course of my research.

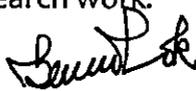

My sincere thanks are also due to Yap Jigme N Kazi, Editor, Sikkim Observer and Mr Amit Patro, Editor, Sikkim Express, Gangtok for allowing me to use the newspapers published by them in the subsequent years for the accomplishment of my work. I am also grateful to the Registrar and the office staffs, University of North Bengal for their help. I would also thank the Librarians and staffs members of University of North Bengal, National Library, Kolkata and Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, New Delhi for extending me warm hospitality and personal help to procure relevant records and books from their respective libraries relating to my research.

I also express my sincere gratitude to my father, mother and family members especially my brother Mr Sarkaman Khamdhak, Mrs T M Subba, Ms Neela Hangma Subba and Mr Maita Hang Subba who always stood and looked after the affairs of my family and happily endured family problems that chased them during my prolonged absence in the family. My work could not have been accomplished today if I would not have had received moral support of my family members. This really encouraged and strengthened me to carry out such up-hill task of Ph D work in my life. I am also thankful to Mr Uttam Upadhyaya of English Department, NGC for helping me in translating the documents needed for my research. I am grateful to Mr A B Subba, Mrs Genevieve Syangbo and Mr Karma Samten Bhutia for always sharing their views during the course of my research. I also express my sincere gratitude to Madam Madusree and Titir (Jana) for their affection, hospitality and generosity. My thanks are also due to Mr Saran Khamdhak, Sikkim Legislative Assembly who helped me to collect important proceedings useful for my research.

I extend my grateful thanks to all the learned scholars and academicians whose works I have consulted and referred which have immensely facilitated my Ph D work.

Last but the least, I would express my heartfelt thanks to Mr Bal Hang Limboo, Ms Lozi Hangma Limboo and Ms Sanjitra Limboo for constantly co-operating and taking care of my health while carrying out my research work.

(Buddhilal Subba)