

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am deeply indebted to my supervisor, Professor Rangadhar Sahu, without whose guidance and inspiration, it would have been impossible for me to complete the work.

I also owe my deep sense of gratitude to the faculty and staff of the Centre for Himalayan Studies, and the authority and staff of the Central Library, North Bengal University.

I am also grateful to the officers and official staff of Government of Sikkim for their help they extended during my visit. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to the HRDD, Sikkim, for giving me the permission to continue research work.

I am also thankful to Dr. Amal Dutta, Audience Research officer, Doordarshan Kendra, Calcutta for his constant guidance and help.

I am also grateful to the authorities and staff of the, National Library, Calcutta, Centre for the Study of Social Science Research, Calcutta, Bombay University Library and Jawahar Lal Nehru University Library, New Delhi for their co-operation they extended to me during my visit.

I would also like to thank my elder brother Prof. Arun Kanti Jana, Department of Political Science, North Bengal University, Raja Rammohunpur, Darjeeling, West Bengal, who encouraged me to pursue a scholarly career. Without his guidance and continuous support it would have been impossible to finish this work. My mother, brothers and sister have always encouraged me with my studies right from my childhood. Their spirit will always live with me.

I am also grateful to my Principal, colleagues and staff of VCGL Government Senior Secondary School, Ravangla, South Sikkim, for their support. Thanks are also due to Mr. Bhupal Rai, Mr. Madhab Saha, Mrs Gopa Roy Choudhury, Mr. Anup Kr. Roy, Mr. Santanu Ghosh Mr. Sanjoy Hazra and Mr. Sudipto Roy for their support.

Last but not the least, I have to thank my wife babi for putting up with the disruption of our normal domestic life brought about by my work. My son Aditya who has faced the loss of time which I would otherwise allocated to him. Despite this, they have been a constant source of inspiration to me.
