I express my profound gratitude to my supervisor Professor Sanchari Roy Mukherjee for her relentless efforts, minute instructions and careful guidance and inspiration through out the last couple of years. Despite her busy schedule she never disappointed my inquisitive research mind to take a call or sitting in over a table of discussion. Every moment I spent with her was illuminating with her new points of thought, to say the least. Words could hardly express the way I feel indebted to her. I am immensely thankful to Professor Jeta Sankrityayan of University of North Bengal who has left indelible mark on helping to construct the research pattern. I also want to thank Professor Rajat Acharyya of Jadavpur University who helped me to initiate this research thought.

I take the opportunity to pay my tribute to my parents Late Mr. Tara Krishna Roy and Mrs. Jharna Roy whose wishes I always tried to fulfill and whose beliefs in my potentials remained throughout. My father's last wish was about the successful completion of this study. So, I want to dedicate this work to the memory of my beloved Dad. I want to pay my tribute to another departing soul who is my own loving sister, Late Mrs. Basanti Chakraborty whom I also lost during this phase of work.

I am enormously grateful to Professor Santanu Ghosh of Maulana Azad College for his immense help and lots of cooperation in connection with this research work. Suggestions from my erudite friend Professor Partha Pratim Pal, Indian Institute of Management-Calcutta, remained equally helpful which can hardly be explained through words. I also want to thank a lot of people who remained engaged with this work in and other way. My colleague Dr. P.K. Das, Principal of Kaliyaganj College and Dr. Bikas Bhusan Sen, Ex-Associate Professor of Kaliyaganj College were amongst them who inspired me to carry out my work. I am thankful to my childhood friend Arunava Chakraborti, Anirban Ghosh, Soumya Chatterjee, Ogni Roy and Judhajit Mukherjee for their invaluable friendship, Dr. Debashis Nandi Debashis Bhowmick, Manish Baidya, Dhananjay Shaw, Bipul Mandal, Islam Uddin Khan, Pabitra Barman, Dr. Santu Chakraborty and Subhankar Choudhury for their continuous debate and discussions, without which Ph D study would have been much more difficult. I am especially thankful to a group of my students namely, Chinmoy Sarkar, Riyaz Rahaman, Surojit Sarkar, Minakhho Ghosh, Sujoy Mahanta, Rajib Roy, Rituporna Roy for helping me to conduct the research surveys.

Finally I am thankful to my better half Mrs. Dola Maitra Roy and my loving son Rwik Suvro Roy for their constant unwavering support in several possible ways.
