

PREFACE

I express my deepest sense of gratitude, reverence and indebtedness to my guide, Professor Anil Bhuiyali, Department of Economics, North Bengal University, Dist-Darjeeling, (presently Vice Chancellor, Raiganj University, West Bengal), for his guidance and advice with immense zeal for hard work, insistence of perfection and positive approach towards my research study.

I also express my deepest sense of gratitude to Professor Jeta Sankrityayana, Professor Sanchari Roy Mukherjee, Ms. Sudhakshina Ray, Professor K. K. Bagchi, Tamash Ranjan Majumder, Govinda Choudhury, Kanchan Dutta and Karan Tamang of the Department of Economics, NBU for their immense support and help whenever required.

I acknowledge with thanks the help received from Smt. Nibedita Chakraborty (Mukherjee), Associate Professor, Seuri College, West Bengal and Dr. Tapa Roy, Secretary General, Calcutta Chamber of Commerce for their cordial support, valuable information and guidance which helped me in this work through various stages.

I am indebted to a large number of eminent authors whose writings have been freely consulted and also to the Department of Consumer Affairs, Govt. of West Bengal for cooperating me by supporting necessary data and for giving me such necessary permission to continue my research work. I am obliged to those individuals, too many to be mentioned by name, who helped me in my research endeavour.

The encouragement and moral support in preparation of this research work is made possible for the Staff Members of District Consumer Disputes Redressal Forum, Kolkata, Unit-II and also my family members.

I also express my deepest sense of gratitude to our esteemed University of North Bengal for all that I have learnt as a research scholar.

Finally, I also express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Partha Chattopadhyay, Hon'ble Minister-In-Charge, Education Department, Govt. of West Bengal for his immense support, inspiration and ceaseless encouragement, blessings and well wishes.
