

Contents

Pages

Chapter –I: Introduction

1-15

- (a) General Out line
- (b) Conceptual Distinction.
- (c) Panchayat and rural development
- (d) Statement of the problem
- (e) Objectives of the study
- (f) Review of the literature
- (g) Methodology
- (h) Limitation of the Study.
- (i) Schematic Arrangement.
- (j) References.

Chapter- II : Panchayat Raj in West Bengal.

16-33

Introduction

- (a) Historical overview of Panchayat in the pre- independence period.
- (b) Panchayat Raj in independence India
- (c) Panchayat Raj in West Bengal.
- (d) Left front Government and panchayat Raj in West Bengal.
- (e) The powers and functions of the panchayats.
- (f) The decnetralised planning approach.
- (g) Summary.
- (h) Referances.

Chapter- III : Panchayat Raj in Practice- A study of Cooch Behar district.

34-58

Introduction

- (a) Profile analysis of the district
  - (i) Location, boundary & Administrative Unit
  - (ii) A study of population of the district.
  - (iii) Urban-Rural Composition.
  - (iv) Scheduled Caste & Scheduled Tribe population
  - (v) Occupational distribution
  - (vi) Literacy level
  - (vii) Cropping Pattern
  - (viii) Fertiliser Consumption
  - (ix) Nature of Irrigation
- (b) Results of Panchaytat election in the district
- (c) The socio-economic Profile of the two gram panchayat
  - (i) Khagrabari Gram Panchayat
  - (ii) Sikarpur Gram Panchayat
- (d) Gram Panchayat members by party representation
  - (i) Khagrabari Gram Panchayat
  - (ii) Sikarpur Gram Panchayat

- (e) Summary
- (f) References

Chapter- IV : Caste, Class and Power Structure of the Panchayat Members in Respect to Rural Development in a Backward Region, Cooch Behar.

59-83

Introduction

Section-I

- (a) Caste of Gram Panchayat members in the district of Cooch Behar.
- (b) Class of Panchayat members in the district
  - (i) Land Holding
  - (ii) Occupation
  - (iii) Educational Status

Section-II

- (c) Caste of the gram panchayat members in Khagrabari G.P.
- (d) Class of panchayat members in Khagrabari G.P.
  - (i) Land Holding
  - (ii) Occupation
  - (iii) Educational Status
- (e) Caste of the gram panchayat members in Sikarpur G.P.
- (f) Caste of the panchayat members in Sikarpur G.P.
  - (i) Land Holding
  - (ii) Occupation
  - (iii) Educational Status
- (g) Summary
- (h) References

Chapter- V : Panchayat Resources and pattern of expenditure on development activities with special reference to Cooch Behar District.

84-108

Introduction

- (a) Tax revenue of gram panchayat
  - (i) House Tax revenue of gram panchayat
  - (ii) Fees of the sample panchayats
  - (iii) Total Tax revenue of the sample panchayat
- (b) Non Tax revenue of the sample panchayat
- (c) Total revenue and per capita revenue of panchayats
- (d) Grants from the Govt. and own resources of the sample panchayats,
- (e) Expenditure of the sample panchayats
- (f) Summary
- (g) References.

Chapter- VI : Role of panchayats and poverty alleviation programme on the rural economy of Cooch Behar.

109-144

Introduction

Section-A

- (a) Basic approach of the I.R.D.P to the target group of People of the priority sector through DRDA.
- (b) Progress on implementation of I.R.D.P in the sample Panchayat, Khagrabari through DRDA
- (c) Progress of implementation of I.R.D.P in the sample Panchayat, Sikarpur through DRDA
- (d) Survey results to evaluate the impact of I.R.D.P on the target group of people (priority sector).

Section-B

- (e) Basic approach of J.R.Y scheme to the target group of people through Zilla Parishad.
- (f) Progress on implementation of J.R.Y in the sample panchayat Khagrabari through Zilla Parishad.
- (g) Progress on implementation of J.R.Y in the sample panchayat Sikarpur through Zilla Parishad.
- (h) Survey results to evaluate the impact of J.R.Y.on the perception of Gram Sabha meeting and village development.
- (i) Summary
- (j) References

Chapter VII: Summary and conclusion.

145-154

Appendix

155-168

Bibliography

169-180