

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In order to complete my study, a number of individuals and institutions have helped me in various ways. I feel lucky to have received guidance, helps, comments and criticisms from many academicians.

Foremost, I express my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Palas R. Sengupta, Department of Commerce, North Bengal University, Darjeeling, India, who sacrificed his valuable time and energy for guiding the research work. He has kept vigilance of all stages of my efforts and has gone through all the written works with great patience. He also encouraged and sustained me throughout my study, without which this work might not come to the reality.

This study is supported by the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) Scholarship Scheme. I am grateful to the ICCR authority. I am also grateful to the Government of Bangladesh and the authority of Islamic University, Bangladesh, to grant me leave for my study in India. My heartiest gratitude to the authority of North Bengal University to permit me to work different Libraries and Universities in India and Bangladesh.

I am thankful to the faculty members in the Department of Commerce, NBU for their co-operation and special thanks to Dr. A. K. Roy, Head, Department of Commerce for providing me computer facilities and other administrative help.

My heartiest gratitude to Prof. Abdul Awal Khan, Chittagong University, Bangladesh and Mr. S. M. Nurullah, Chairman, Dept. of Management, Rajshahi University, Bangladesh for their help in my research work, specially providing research material. I am grateful to my honorable teacher Prof. M. Anisur Rahman, Dept. of Management, Rajshahi University, Bangladesh for his time to time valuable suggestions. I acknowledge all of my colleagues in the Department of Accounting, Islamic University, Bangladesh for their kind co-operation in various ways. I would like to remember my colleague Mr. Monwar Hossain Mahmood, Assistant Professor of Management, Islamic University, Bangladesh, who helped me in my field study.

I am grateful to the Dhaka University, Dhaka; Bangladesh Institute of Development Studies, Dhaka; Bangladesh Management Development Center, Dhaka; Chittagong University Library, Bangladesh; National Labour Institute, New Delhi; Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta; National Library, Calcutta; I.C.S.S.R Calcutta; I.L.O. Office, Dhaka; the British Council Library, Dhaka & Calcutta; for allowing me use their Library facilities and extending their helps and co-operation. I would also like to acknowledge my indebtedness to all the writers in India, Bangladesh and abroad, whose works have been made use of in this study. My appreciation must also be expressed to the members of the Central Library (Grantha Bhavan) of the North Bengal University.

I acknowledge my enormous debt to all the executives, trade union leaders, and labour court's members whom I interviewed during my field survey. I am grateful to the Director of Labour, Government of Bangladesh, and his staffs for their support, co-operation and assistance, offered me during data collection.

Throughout this study I got the opportunity to come across some brilliant scholars who were devoted researchers and would stay in the Research Scholars' Hostel, NBU. They co-operated me in different ways specially, they gave me friendly company and pleasure. Among them, Mr. J. C. Paul and Mr. Abdul Hannan Sheikh, two Bangladeshi scholar are mentionable. During my stay in NBU campus Mr. Khurshed Alam & Mrs. Nargis Alam and Dr. Anwarul Islam & Mr. Roji Islam, two couples from Bangladesh, entertained me many time and gave me cordial association. I convey my heartiest wishes to all of them.

I also thank Sri Asish Nag and Sri Probal Kr. Ghosh for their sincere and efficient computer assistance special thank to Sri Subrata Ghosh and Smt. Ghosh. owner of the Ghosh Printing Press for their cordial co-operation during my computer work and careful printing & binding of this thesis.

I refer here my deepest sense of gratitude to my dear parents, to whom this work is dedicated, and my grandmother for their affection and blessing.

Finally, I put on record a special word of appreciation for my beloved wife, Mrs. Shamima Parveen for her encouragement and sacrifice. She resided in Bangladesh alone during my whole study period and consequently, were deprived from my love and affection. Shamima also had to face all the trouble and hazards created there due to my absence.

Since, this is exclusively my work, I myself is responsible for any limitation or error in the work.
