

Acknowledgements

In bringing out the thesis, I am indebted to many individuals and feel it a pleasure to record my sincerest thanks to everyone of them. I must acknowledge, with a deep sense of appreciation and gratitude, my indebtedness to the following persons, in particular :

Professor Buddhadeb Choudhuri for his invaluable guidance and constant personal help in conducting this study. Dr. Asok Maiti for his ungrudging help and expertise in carrying out the appropriate analysis of this study ;

Dr. S. Chakraborty , Mr. T. Sasmal for their valuable comments, suggestions and support throughout this study ; Mr. A. Chakraborty, Dr. A. Chowdhury, Mr. D. Bhattacharya, Mr. R. Karmakar, Mrs. S. Bharati for numerous useful discussions.

Special thanks are due to the staff of the Sociological Research Unit, ISI, for their outstanding co-operation and unfailing support throughout the entire period of the work. Logistic support given to this work by the authorities of the Indian Statistical Institute is also gratefully acknowledged.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to the people of Hatiasuli village of Medinipur and Tiljola pub para slum of Calcutta. I express my deep affection to those children who were deprived of their normal life and who ungrudgingly answered all my question. I thank Mr. P. Das, Mr. S. Basu, Mr. B. Pal and Mr. G. Pal for their active personal interest and material support given to me.

I am also thankful to my numerous co-workers, friends and well wishers specially Mr. P. Dey, Mr. P. Swar and Mr. D. K. Som for their constant encouragement and friendly criticism, as well.

Last but not least, I am grateful to the members of my family for so patiently bearing with me ever since the inception of this work.

The omissions and commissions (if any) in the text are all my own.

Tirthankar Ghosh