

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. R. K. Bhadra, Professor, Department of Sociology, University of North Bengal for his supervision, advice and helpful suggestions throughout the present study. His active guidance, constant inspiration and constructive criticism have been of immense help in every stage of the work.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) Mita Bhadra, Head, Department of Sociology, University of North Bengal for her extremely valuable discussion and advice.

I am indebted to the I.C.S.S.R. (Indian Council of Social Science Research) for partial financial assistance to complete this work.

I certainly owe a lot to the following persons due to their unending co-operation that I received during my primary stage of fieldwork. I must mention their names. They are Sri M.L. Gyne, former Joint Labour Commissioner, Govt. of West Bengal, Siliguri, Sri Rana Ghatak, Project Director, UBSP, Siliguri Municipal Corporation, Sri Mohan Misra, Secretary Ward No. 28, Siliguri and Sri Shanti Chakraborty, Councilor, Ward No. 18, Siliguri. It is a pleasure to express my thanks to all child labourers, their parents and employers under this study for their co-operation.

I would like to thank Prof. S.R. Mondal, Head, Department of Anthropology and some other staffs of North Bengal University for their help and co-operation.

I must express my heartfelt thanks to Mr. Barun Majumdar, teacher, Bagdogra SMSN High School for his active co-operation.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to my late father, my late elder sister and my mother not only for their encouragement and co-operation for this work but also for their affectionate teaching that made me what I am today.

Finally, I must express my heartfelt thanks to Mr. M. Goswami, NBU for computer printing.
