

CONTENTS

	Page
Acknowledgement
List of the Tables	i
 Chapter - One
INTRODUCTION
Problem of the Study	1
Review of Literatures	7
Objectives	24
Methodology	26
 Chapter - Two
PERSONAL AND FAMILY BACKGROUND OF CHILD LABOURERS
Personal background	28
Age composition	28
Sex composition	29
Religion	30
Caste composition	30
Mother tongue	31
Marital status	31
Migration	32
Family background	35
Size of the family	35
Child labourers with or without parents	37
Literacy of the parents of the child labourers	37

	Page
Occupations of the parents	38
Income of the parents of the child labourers	40
Views of the parents of the child labourers	41
The provisions for abolishing child labour in the Indian Constitution	43
Diseases of parents	44
The problem of drug addiction	45
Property	46

Chapter - Three

NATURE OF WORK OF THE CHILD LABOURERS

Types of work	48
Length of present work	50
Previous employers where he/she has already worked	51
Satisfaction of work	52
Other works of the child labourers	52
Habit of absent from work	53
Persons who motivated the children to work	54
Income of the child labourers	55
Wages of child labourers	57
Satisfaction of child labourers with the wages	58
Other facilities to the child labourers	59
Working hours	60
Recess break	61
Holidays	62
Medium of entertainments	64
Expenditure	65
Education	66

	Page
Nature of punishment	67
Employers' behaviour in the view of child labourers	68
Health of child labourers	69
Causes of child labourers	70
Working conditions of child labourers	72
Future thought	74
Employers' opinion	75
 Chapter - Four
SOME SELECTED CASE STUDIES	77
 Chapter - Five
SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION	90
Some suggestions for abolition of child labourers —	97
Protective legislation, Welfare programme, Educational facilities, Voluntary organizations for welfare of the child labourers, Lengthening of the recess breaks, Community-based meeting and workshops, Fixation of minimum hours of work, Good working conditions and fixation of minimum wages, Public awareness, Detailed survey on child labour
REFERENCES	101