

CONTENTS

1.	Introduction	1
2.	Meaning and Definition of strike	12
2. 1	Freedom of Association	16
2. 2	Right to strike	18
2. 3	Right to Strike: what it includes and what it implies?	20
2. 4	Participation in decision taking (Upward flow of authority)	20
2. 5	Collective bargaining	22
2.5(a)	Bargaining factors	22
2.5(b)	Prohibition of collective bargaining	29
2.5(c)	Limitation of collective bargaining	29
2.5(d)	Third party assistance in collective bargaining disputes	30
2.6(a)	Definition in general	31
2.6(b)	Definition by ILO	34
2.6(c)	Definition under Industrial Disputes Act, 1947	35
2.7	Types of Strikes	43
2.7(a)	Primary strikes	44
2.7(b)	Secondary strikes	54
2. 7(c)	Non-Violent tactics	60
3.	Nature & Scope of Right to strike	73
3. 1	Right - Meaning	73
3. 2	Social aspects of strike	77
3. 3	Importance of strike	79
3. 4	Technological factors	81
3. 5	Progress	82
3. 6	Strike and fundamental right	97
3. 7	Possibility of permanent ban on strike.	112
3. 8	Globalisation and implementation of new economic Policies and role of multi-national companies	118

4	Historical perspectives	120
4. 1	Development of right to strike in United Kingdom	121
4. 2	Development of right to strike in USA	134
4. 3	Development of right to strike in Russia	142
4. 4	Development of right to strike in India	145
5	Causes of strikes	161
5. 0	Motives for launching strikes	161
5. 1	Multi unionism	163
5. 2	Role of the Trade Unions	164
5. 3	Non- Payment of wages	179
5. 4	Privatisation	180
5. 5	Down sizing employment	185
5. 6	Sub-Contracting	187
5. 7	Work-Culture	188
5. 8	Job-redesign	192
5. 9	Involvement of workers	193
5. 10	Job security	193
5. 11	Technology	196
5. 12	Expectations from employer/supervisor	197
5. 13	Expectations by the employer	198
5. 14	Colleagues	198
5. 15	Delay in Judicial Proceedings	199
6	Strikes and Constitution of India	200
6. 1	Workers' rights	205
6. 2	Constitutional provisions	210
6. 2(a)	Article 19	210
6. 2(b)	Article 253	216
6. 2(c)	Article 310	217
6. 2(d)	Article 311	217
6. 2(e)	Article 51(c)	218
6. 2(f)	Article 37	218
6. 3	Balance between individual rights and social control	220
6. 4	Formation of unions	221
6. 4(a)	Freedom of association – reasonable restrictions	224
6. 5	Article 21	226
6. 6	Article 38	226
6. 7	Freedom of association – Defence personnel	228

6. 8	Article 358	238
7.	Strikes - Statutory provisions	240
7. 1	Industrial Disputes Act, 1947	242
7. 1(a)	Strikes in Public Sector Undertakings (Section - 22)	243
7. 1(a)(i)	Reasons for enacting section 22	245
7. 2)	General prohibition of strikes (Section 23)	254
7. 3	Section 24	258
7. 4	Consequences of illegal strikes.	259
7. 5	The Trade Union Act, 1926	262
7. 6	The Essential Services Maintenance Act, 1981	264
7. 7	The Right to Information Act, 2005	267
8.	Judiciary on "Right to Strike"	269
8. 1	Phase - I	272
8. 2	Phase - II	280
8. 3	Phase - III	284
8. 4	Phase - IV	288
8. 5	Phase - V	290
8. 6	Phase - VI	295
9.	Effect of strikes	308
9. 1	On Employees	308
9. 2	On employer	317
9. 3	On Government	325
9. 4	On General public	354
9. 5	Opinions of the employees and union leaders.	356
10.	Conclusion and suggestions	368
Table of Cases		i to vii
Bibliography		I to VII