Any accomplishment requires the opportunity and efforts of many people and this work is not different. I thank my guide Dr. Ananda Gopal Ghosh, Professor and former Head of the Department of History North Bengal University, for giving me the opportunity, patience and support in accomplishing this work. I am also grateful to Dr. Bijoy Sarkar, the present HOD History, North Bengal University for his kind guidance and support in every needful moment.

Special thanks go to UGC New Delhi for providing monetary grant to my research work. I would like to thank all the librarians and staff of NBU and Kokrajhar Govt. College, Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Assam State Archive, Tribal Research Institute Guwahati, Hagzer Bhavan Head-Office of the Bodo Sahitya Sabha, ABSU Office, Kokrajhar.

I am grateful to my father Sri Batendra Nath Brahma for his support and encouragement. I would like to thank Mrs. Anjalee Basumatary (HOD, Physics, Kokrajhar Govt. College) for her guidance and support in every needful moment. I am grateful to my parents, my husband, my children, my brother Tapanjit and Rwmwi.

I sincerely thank all those people who had helped me in accomplishing this work even in their smallest possible way. Despite my best efforts and care, there may be some errors. However, I owe all responsibilities for that.
