

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Completing my PhD degree is probably the most challenging activity of the first 32 years of my life. I wish to express my sincere appreciation to those who have contributed to this thesis and supported me in one way or the other during this amazing journey.

To commence with, I pay my obeisance to GOD, the almighty to have bestowed upon me good health, courage, inspiration, zeal and the light. After God, I am extremely grateful to my research guide, Prof. (Dr.) Gangotri Chakraborty, Professor and Former Head, Department of Law, North Bengal University, for her valuable guidance, scholarly inputs and consistent encouragement I received throughout the research work. A person with an amicable and positive disposition, She has always made herself available to clarify my doubts despite her busy schedules. She has also taught me another aspect of life that, "goodness can never be defied and good human beings can never be denied." Her constant guidance, cooperation, motivation and support have always kept me going ahead. I owe a lot of gratitude to her for always being there for me and I feel privileged to be associated with a person like her during my life.

I am also indebted to Late Prof. Bishnu Prasad Dwivedi who inspired me a lot and also supported me a lot from when I got registered as a Ph.D scholar in Law in the University of North Bengal. But it is my misfortune that he is no more in this world to see me complete my research.

I owe my special thanks to Prof. (Dr.) Rathin Bandopadhyay, Head, Department of Law and Head Department of Management, University of North Bengal, Dr. Sujit Kumar Biswas and Dr. Narender Nagarwal, Professors, Department of Law, University of North Bengal for their advises and suggestions which helped me to develop a 'liking' for research which is fundamental requisite for any research scholar.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Santanu Chanda, Assistant Librarian of Law and Mr. Amal Dhar, the library staff for their hearty assistance in searching out the relevant study materials for the present work.

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude and respectful regards to Rev. Fr. (Dr.) Benny Thomas, Prof. (Dr.) Somu C.S. and Dr. Sandeep S. Desai, for their indispensable help during the completion of this research work.

I must also thank office staff Ms. Vijaya Fernandes, and Mr. Sreekumar, Librarian, School of Law, Christ University for their kind support and timely help whenever required.

I owe my deepest gratitude towards my better half Poonam Agarwal for her eternal support and understanding of my goals and aspirations. Her infallible love and support has always been my strength. Her patience and sacrifice besides working on her own thesis will remain my inspiration throughout my life. Without her help, I would not have been able to complete much of what I have done and become who I am. I am also thankful to my son Pranjal Agarwal for giving me happiness at all times. I thank God for blessing me with a child like him. He was one month old when I wrote my course work theory exam and when I got registered as a Ph.D. scholar; he was fourteen months old. As calm and composed now he was then. His charming face and pleasant smile always kept me going and motivated me to accomplish my goals.

As always it is impossible to mention everybody who had an impact to this work, however there are those whose spiritual support is even more important. Words prove a meager media to write down my feelings for my mother Smt. Ranjana Devi Agarwal, my father Shri. Pawan Kr. Agarwal, my brother Bharat Agarwal and sister Sonia Agarwal Lakhotia, who formed part of my vision and taught me good things that really matter in life.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Anil Mittal and Mr. Aditya Nakipuria, for their never ending help and support. It was because of their help I could complete all the formalities of submitting my thesis on time.

All this would not have been possible without the dreams of my grandfather late. Mangeram Agarwal. The happy memory of my grandfather still provides persistent inspiration for my journey in this life.

Finally, I am thankful to all those who have directly or indirectly helped me in completion of this work.

Place: University of North Bengal

Date:

Pukhraj Agarwal
Pukhraj Agarwal