Thinking of research was a big challenge for me as I was working in a private set up where managing extra time for self study was just like an out of the blue phenomenon. But when I began my research work, I started getting unbelievable support and encouragement till the end of my thesis from many nice and kind people in that organisation and outside the organisation. Hence, this thesis would not have seen the day light without their advice and support.

At the outset, I am extremely grateful to my supervisor, Dr. Amlan Majumder, Assistant Professor of Economics, Dinhat College and my co-supervisor, Dr. Sanchari Roy Mukherjee, Professor of Economics, University of North Bengal for their professional advice, able guidance and timely suggestions during the course of this study.

I am also extremely grateful to all the faculty members of the Department of Economics, University of North Bengal for extending necessary support and constant encouragement. Special thanks to Professor Kanak Kanti Bagchi, Head of the Economics Department, Dr. Gobindo Chowdhury, Assistant Professor, and Dr. Kanchan Dutta, Associate Professor of the same department, University of North Bengal for their valuable inputs and critical comments.

I am also grateful to the administrative staffs and other library staffs of University of North Bengal for their excellent support and cooperation during the study.

I would like to thank my ex-colleagues Dr. Shuvendu Dey, Ms. Amrita Banerjee and Ms. Santana Guha, Assistant Professor of Department of Business Administration, Siliguri Institute of Technology and present colleagues of Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya, especially, Mr. Arindam Debnath, Assistant Professor of Political Science for their motivation, moral support and professional inputs throughout the research work.

Last but not least, I would like to dedicate special thanks to my parent, family members and close relatives for their moral support and encouragement. No words would be adequate to express my gratefulness to my beloved wife, Ms. Sudeshna Ghosh, despite her busy schedule and hectic pressure at bank, she has always been supportive, sacrificing and compromising, and my little angel daughter, Samiksha who sacrificed her quality time with her father during research work. I am extremely indebted to both of them.
