

Acknowledgement

It gives me great pleasure to record my deep sense of gratitude to the University of North Bengal for giving me the opportunity to undertake and complete my present research work. Next I express my deep sense of indebtedness to Professor J. C. Basak of the Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University. He encouraged me to register for Ph. D. at a time when I could not think of such a venture as I was posted in the Darjeeling Government College away from my home or even the nearest University, the University of North Bengal. Professor Basak went further and agreed to guide me as my research supervisor in spite of his multifarious other responsibilities and commitments. He also exhibited great patient and kindness when I could not finish my assignments in time. He never lost his hope and confidence that I would be able to complete my work. I hope I have not disappointed him. I am also indebted to former Prof. Raghunath Ghosh, Prof. Kanti Lal Das, Prof. Debika Saha, Dr. Koushik Joardar, Dr. Nirmal Kr. Roy, Dr. Anirban Mukherjee, Dr. Laxmikanta Padhi, Dr. N. Ramthing, Smt. Swataga Ghosh, and Smt. Anureema Bhattacharyya of the Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University. I am also grateful to Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture (RMIC), Golpark and its General Secretaries Swami Prabhanandaji Maharaj and Swami Sarvabhutanandaji Maharaj. Shortly after I did my M.A. from Jadavpur University I became there a registered Research Fellow as a Ph. D. scholar of Jadavpur University. Though at that time my topic of research work was different yet I was allowed to undertake collateral minor research in the subject of puruṣārtha or Human Need. During my stay at Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture I completed two full length papers that were subsequently published in JICPR. It is also an appropriate occasion to express my deep sense of appreciation of many of my friends and seniors at Darjeeling Government College and Krishnagar Government College who contributed to sustaining and enhancing my academic interest and hope. I also need to state that I received help, guidance and encouragement from many persons including late Prof. Navjyoti Singh, Prof. P.K. Mukhopadhyay, Prof. Shivani Sharma and many more. It goes without saying that I am especially indebted to my parents, few Swamijis and teachers who nurtured me to imbibe some perennial academic moral and cultural values.
