

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Gratitude is the fairest blossom which springs from the soul”

Henry Ward Beecher

The journey of seven long years dedicated to this research work has been the most beautiful phase, which has helped me grow to understand the colourful book of life. The Almighty has been very kind to me for which I shall always remain grateful to Him.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Ranjita Chakraborty who has been very patient, supportive, caring and above all a friend to a young scholar who without any hesitation extracted her time in spite of her extremely busy schedule to attend to even the most idiotic questions that popped in my mind right from the initial years of my research. Today, whatever I have understood in life owes a large share for its existence to my supervisor who has always been there to guide me with all her love and concerns as her own child.

I would like to thank all the eminent Professors of the Department of Political Science, University of North Bengal for their efforts in grooming me as an individual. A strong vision is required for the completion of any dedicated work, research not being an exception to it. Without a strong vision, one cannot move forward in any aspect of life. I would like to thank Lt. Prof. P.K. Sengupta for bestowing upon me a vision to dream in life and work towards its achievement. Though, he is no longer present with us but I believe that without his blessings, I would not have been able to come this far.

The support of a family is very important in any decision that we choose to take in life. I would like to thank my mother, for believing in me, and for making me who I am today. I would also like to thank my sister Ms. Karma Rinchen Lamu, for sharing her military approach in life that has helped me to understand the importance of self discipline, time and respect the call of duty which has always guided me.

Furthermore, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. B.K. Singh, Deputy Librarian, Central Library, University of Allahabad, Mr. Indravaradhan Patel, Mr. Avdesh Yadav, Mr. Sunil Mishra and Mr. Hiryanaya Chaubey, for their technical assistance and support in conducting the research.

I would like to thank Mr. Sanjay Bagchi, Secretary of Terai Branch, Indian Tea Association, for his valuable inputs about the area of study.

The circle of friends that have been my companion for such a long time needs a special mention here. I would like to thank my roommate of six years Ms. Smriti Rai for her unconditional love and support. I would also like to extend my sincere gratitude to Sunny Siraj Khan, Anirban Chakraborty, Joginder Tanwar, Bimal Roy, Pankaj Roy, Mithun Das, Jai Chauhan, Dr. S.M. Fayaz, Adhvay Khokar, Cherry F. D' Souza, Lama Chophel, Lama Karma Tenzing, Lama Nimtshering, Lama Karma Loday, Lama Nerden and Lama Tengey for being an eternal source of inspiration that helped me complete this venture.

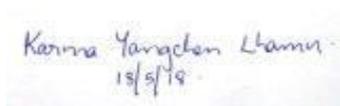

Special words of gratitude to Dr. Kustav Chakraborty, Dr. Dinesh Roy, Dr. R. E. Wangdi and Mr. Bishal Pradhan, who have been a mentor to me right from my college days for their love and support bestowed upon me in every possible manner.

I would like to thank Mr. Biswadeb Singha and Mr. Probir Singha for helping me out with the library works and for their unceasing efforts in assisting me complete the research work.

Not to forget, I would like to thank all the respondents who dedicated their valuable time in providing me with honest inputs about the area of study without which I would not have been able to complete this task.

Last but not the least; I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Karma Tashi for helping me with the technical support in the completion of this mega journey.

Karma Yangchen Lhamu

Karma Yangchen Lhamu
15/5/18