

CONTENTS

Acknowledgement	Page
Preface
List of Tables
List of Figures
Chapter 1	1 - 9
Introduction :
The Region of North Bengal : In Geographical Perspective.
Chapter 2	10 - 50
Urban Growth and Urbanization in North Bengal in Spatial and Temporal Perspective.
A. Historical evolution
B. Emergence of new towns.
C. Urban growth in North Bengal
D. Ranking of the urban centres
E. The size classes of urban centres
Chapter 3	51 - 236
Urban Functions and Regional Economy
A. Marketing as a major function in the regional economy.

1. Types of markets
2. Spatial distribution of market centres
3. Temporal distribution of market centres
4. Market link roads
5. Role of urban markets in the regional economy.

B. Industrial activities and their impact on regional economy.

1. Location, distribution and manufacturing activity.
2. Spatial distribution of industries among the districts.
3. Locational preference for industrial establishments - urban or rural.
4. Impact of locational trends of industries on urban development.
5. Comparative picture of industrial location in the different towns.
6. Infrastructural facilities for the development of small scale industry units.

- C. Banking as an urban function and its role in regional economy
1. Spatial distribution of branches
  2. Deposits
  3. Loan to different sectors:
Agricultural and non-agricultural
  4. Loan to different non-agricultural sectors of the different districts.
  5. Loan to different non-agricultural sectors of the different urban centres.
- D. Health Services available from the medical units of the urban centres of the region.

Chapter 4

237-265

Central Functions and the Hierarchy of the Urban Centres of the Region.

Chapter 5

266-422

Spatial Linkages and Regional Economy

- A. Factors Contributing to the development of Linkages :

1. Roadways

- i) Road length
- ii) Accessibility by roads
- iii) Transportation of goods by trucks
- iv) Transportation of passengers by buses.

2. Railways

- i) Railway tracks
- ii) Accessibility by railways
- iii) Goods, flow through railway traffic
- iv) Passenger flow through railway traffic.

3. Role of fuel

- i) Oil suppliers : area of operation and administrative set up.
- ii) The distributional network of Petroleum Oil (POL)
- iii) Motor Spirit (MS) and High Speed Diesel (HSD) demand (retail)
- iv) Distribution of Petroleum Oil (POL) Centres and the demand for Motor Spirit (MS) and High Speed Diesel (HSD).
- v) The role of the Indian Oil Company

4. The Communication System : Its present Status and Role.
  - i) The Spatial distribution of the post offices and their accessibility.
  - ii) The Spatial distribution of telegraph offices and their accessibility
  - iii) Telephone Services
  - iv) Money order flow
- B. Impact of Spatial Linkages on the regional economy and regional imbalance.

Chapter 6

423 - 501

Study of Selective Cases

- A. Siliguri
- B. English Bazar
- C. Alipurduar.

Chapter 7

502 - 513

Conclusion

References

Bibliography