

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. T.B. Subba, Reader in the Department of Anthropology, NEHU, Shillong, for guiding me at different stages of the present study. Without him it would have been impossible for me to give this work its present form. I am also thankful to my other teachers in the Department. My thanks also go to my friends Bristina Wanniang, Persara Lyngdoh and Ilinda Blah, who have helped me in my work.

I am deeply indebted to all the people of Marngar without whose help my work could not have been completed.

Last but not the least, words cannot express my feelings about my parents, especially my (late) father, for showing tremendous interest in this endeavour and also my mother for financial support and encouragement. Finally, I express my gratitude to my brothers and sisters who have been an important source of inspiration for me.
