

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

During the course of present study I have piled up a burden of debt to too many individuals and organizations. It is such a mammoth task that I can't satisfactorily acknowledge my gratitude, which I owe to them. However, it is my level best to recollect the name of such persons or organizations within a page.

It is my pleasure of having the opportunity to work under the guidance of eminent scholar and proficient teacher Prof. Sekh Rahim Mondal, Dr. Charu Chandra Sanyal Chair Professor of Anthropology and Sociology in Centre for Himalayan Studies, and former Head, Department of Anthropology, University of North Bengal. During entire course of engagement with University of North Bengal, he happened to be my friend, philosopher and guide in true sense.

I am highly obliged to co-supervisor of my thesis Prof. Sushil Chandra Pal, Formerly Professor and Head, Department of Genetics, Vivekananda Institute of Medical Science, Ramakrishna Mission Seva Pratisthan, Kolkata, for his unwavering interest, untiring support and never ending optimism.

I am also obliged to present Head and other faculty members of Department of Anthropology, University of North Bengal, for their support and co-operation during the work. I also acknowledge the financial support of University Grants Commission for partial fulfilment of the thesis under Minor Research Project scheme.

I can never equal the contribution of my father, mother, father-in-law and mother-in-law. My heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Gargi Biswas (Saha), my wife, not only to encourage me but also helped me in different sphere of thesis, starting from field work to report writing.

I am grateful to Dr. Mandar Despande and his team of Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai, to enable me to complete the work.
