

PREFACE

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my Supervisor Dr. Pranab Krishna Chanda and my Co. Supervisor Dr. Dhurjati Datta for the support and co-operation I have received from them during my tenure as a research scholar. They have been always with me during the critical times of my research work. Without their co-operation it would not have been possible for me complete the research work. Dr Chanda has been my friend, philosopher and my guide during my tenure as a research scholar. The teachers of Mathematics Department, N.B.U, especially Dr. Suparna Dey Sarkar helped me a lot by giving proper advice on related matters. Head of the Department, Dr. Manaranjan Singha guided me during my thesis submission. I would like to thank the computer teacher of my school, Pradip Roy for helping me in typesetting my thesis material. I would like to thank Mr. Utpal Dutta for the help I received from him. I would like to thank Dr. Nita Mitra for her motherly affection. Very often Tubai had helped me regarding use of Laptop which I had to use for publication of my research papers. I would like to thank my father and mother whose support and blessings helped me to complete my research work. Sonali Di and Rehana Di of Mathematics Department, N.B.U helped me with the paper work. My wife and my son have been my pillar of support without whom it would have been really difficult to finish up the research work. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the staff of Ph.D cell, N.B.U who were always there to take care of my quiries and guide me during the submission process. Dilip Roy of Ph.D cell N.B.U helped me a lot in this regard.
