

Acknowledgement

The author would like to express his deep gratitude to his teacher, Prof. Bimalendu Bhattacharya, Head of the Department, Department of Geography and Applied Geography, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling. Throughout his research the author received from him constant guidance and valuable suggestions. He has been untiring in making necessary corrections during the entire period of his work. Without his loving care this work could not be presented in the present form.

The author also acknowledges his indebtedness to his teacher, Dr. S. Bhattacharya, Lecturer, Department of Geography, University of Calcutta, Calcutta, for his kind cooperation as well as sympathy.

The author owes much to his teacher, Prof. Mrs. A. Bhattacharya, Lecturer, Department of Geography and Applied Geography, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling, for her valuable suggestions regarding the preparation of maps and sketches.

The author wishes also to thank Prof. B.K. Bajpai, Registrar, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling and Dr. S.B. Das, Principal, Siliguri College, Siliguri for their cooperation and endless encouragement throughout the period of research.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to his other teachers, colleagues and friends for their unstinted help and cooperation.

Prof. S.K. Basu, Lecturer, Department of Geography, Siliguri College, Siliguri, has taken special interest in the work from the preparatory stage and has helped the author throughout with spontaneous advice and suggestions. Indebtedness is great to Mr. J.M. Ganguli, Manager, Sungma Tea Estate, Darjeeling, for his various suggestions and opinion on the overall situation of the industry.

The author will be failing in his duty if he does not mention the help extended to him by Mr. B.C. Ghose, President, Siliguri Tea Auction Committee, Siliguri; Mr. S.K. Sanyal, Adviser, Terai Indian Planters Association, Matigara; Mr. B. Chakravarty, Secretary, Tea Association of India, Siliguri Branch; the Secretary, Darjeeling Branch Indian Tea Association, Darjeeling; Mr. G.K. Jauhar, J. Thomas & Co. (P) Ltd., Calcutta; Mr. B.B. Sarker, Manager, Fulbari Tea Estate, Naxalbari; Mr. N.N. Sen, Retired Superintendent, Muhargong & Gulma Tea Estate, Gulma; Mr. M.N. Mukherjee, Manager, Carron Tea Estate, Carron; Mr. B.K. Basu, Head Clerk, Ranicherza Tea Estate, Sainihat; Mr. A. Ganguli, Office Secretary, Siliguri Tea Auction Committee, Siliguri, etc. in making his attempt successful.

The author is equally thankful to Mr. K.D. Banerjee, Librarian, The Tea Board of India, Calcutta and Mr. S.B. Chakravarty, A.W. Figgis & Co. (P) Ltd., Siliguri for their generous attitude.

In this regard Mr. C.B. Sen, Deputy Librarian, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling needs a special mention for allowing the author to use the library whenever necessary.

Thanks are also due to Mr. A. Basu, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling, for typing out the manuscript.

Finally, the author cannot adequately mention his debt to Mrs. G. Bhattacharya for a helping hand in the preparation of maps and diagrams and her cooperation at every stage of this work.
