In preparing my thesis I have worked under the supervision of Dr. Chandidas Bhattacharya, Reader, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University. I express my deepest sense of gratitude to him for his warm encouragement and constant guidance to complete the thesis.

I owe a lot to my revered teacher Late Mihir Bikash Chakraborty for creating my interest in philosophy of language, which formed the background of all my subsequent thinking.

I am immensely grateful to Dr. Manjulika Ghosh, Reader, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University, for inspiring me with her valuable suggestions.

I take the opportunity to offer my thanks to Dr. Pabitra Kumar Roy, Reader, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University, for his invaluable suggestions in connection with my work.

I am grateful to Dr. Raghunath Ghosh, Reader, North Bengal University, for his constant encouragement throughout my work.

I am also grateful to Dr. Bhaswati Chakraborty, Reader, North Bengal University, for inspiring me to complete my thesis.

I have received encouragement from all the teachers, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University. They also deserve my gratitude.

I am grateful to my husband Ramendu Ganguly for doing rough type of my thesis neatly. Throughout the entire period his active co-operation has enabled me to complete my thesis.

I am thankful to my son Subhamoy Ganguly for assisting me in different occasions. Discussion with him have helped me to carry out my work.

I am highly indebted to Mr. M. Chakraborty for typing the thesis nicely.

I am also grateful to Pradip Ganguly for his suggestion and co-operation in many occasions.

I must offer thanks to the Librarian, North Bengal University and his staff for their active and sincere co-operation to collect the relevant materials of the thesis.
