

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This research of mine has been possible due to the assistance, encouragement and guidance of various people. I would like to convey my sincere regards and gratitude towards them. In spite of their busy schedule, they have never hesitated to extend their helping hands whenever I needed them.

First and foremost, I would extend my gratitude towards my supervisor, Prof. Sanjay Kumar Roy, for his motivation, assistance and enormous knowledge. This thesis was achievable because of his unbroken communication of thoughts, views, suggestions, advices, observations and critical comments. Besides my supervisor, I owe sincere gratitude to Prof. Saswati Biswas, the Head of the Department of Sociology, University of North Bengal for her assistance and motivation.

My field work was successful because of my key informants. Mr. Pradip Karmakar, the owner of Bidhan Jewellery Works, Siliguri has furnished me with the information regarding the history and escalation of swarnakars in Siliguri. Mr. B R Ghosh has supplied me with information in regard to the problems faced during the National Strikes. Mr. R A Verma provided me the information with regard to the migration of swarnakars to Siliguri.

I would remain indebted to my parents, Mr. Debabrata Raha and Mrs. Soma Raha, for always standing like a pillar beside me. They have never let me feel stressed and overworked. They have always accompanied me in my field works. I will remain grateful to them forever.

My deep and sincere appreciation to my husband, Dr. Satyam Sil for constantly dealing with my writing structure, sister in law- Dr. Sanchita Sil, brother in law-Mr. Nabin Kumar Sil, mother in law-Mrs. Mukti Sil and father in law-Mr. N K Sil for allowing me to pursue my PhD research work. I am fortunate to be bestowed with immense help and support from them.

Lastly, I would express my sincere gratefulness towards my friend, Ms. Pritha Guha, for her endless support and persistence in giving her views regarding my thoughts and ideas. I appreciate her generous help towards my work.

I am thankful to each and every individual who has helped me to give shape to my ideas. I will forever remain indebted to all of them.

(Sylvia Raha) 6/10/2020

PhD Research Scholar
Department of Sociology
University of North Bengal