

CONTENTS

	Page
Acknowledgement	i - ii
Preface	iii - v
Chapter :
Introduction
A deliniation of some terms	1 - 8
I. Geo-Economic Location of North Bengal Geographical Personality - General Physiography - Rivers of North Bengal- Climate - Soil - Agriculture - Population - Economy - Raw Materials - Agricultural Raw Materials - Forest-based Raw-Materials-Minerals	9 - 36
II. Infrastructure for Industrial Development Power - Transport - Capital	37 - 62
III. Place of Industry in North Bengal- Registration- Project Area - Non-Project Area	63 - 93
IV. Methodology - Utility of the Field Survey - Objectives - Scope - Methods of Surveying	94 - 106
V. Structure of the Industries - Definitions - Productive Capital - Installed Capacity - Output - Resource - based Industry - Demand-based Industry	107 - 150
VI. Major Industries - The Wood Based Industry - The Development and Growth Trend of the Industry -Locational Analysis of the Saw Mills and Ply Wood Factories - Organisation, Structure and Size - Some Important centres of Wood Based Industry - Production - Problems - The Development Plan for Saw Mill and Ply Wood factories	151 - 182

VII. Handloom Industry - The growth Trend of the Industry from 1960 - locational Analysis of the Handloom Industry - Number of Handloom Units Within the Area - Capital Structure - Number of workers employed - Organisation & cost of Production of Handloom Cloth - Problem of the Handloom Industry - Development Plan for the Industry	183-211
VIII. Conclusion	212-226
Appendix	227
References	228-234
Bibliography	235-240