

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my privilege to express my deep gratitude to Dr. Sharit Bhowmik of Department of Sociology, Delhi School of Economics (formerly Reader, Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, university of North Bengal), my teacher whose help, guidance and supervision resulted in completion of this dissertation.

Dr. Asok Maiti of Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta and Dr. Sanjoy Roy of Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, University of North Bengal helped me in formulating my ideas and made suggestions on my draft. I express my deep acknowledgement to them.

Mrs. Subhalaxmi Sarkar of Tea Board, Mr. Sandip Ghosh of D.B.I.T.A., Mr. Diptendu Roy of I.T.P.A., and some of the officials of T.B.I.T.A., T.A.I., Mr. R. Chakrabarty, Assistant Labour Commissioner and Ramen Sinha of Office of the Labour Commission, Government of W. Bengal, helped me a lot by giving me free access to the official data, books, journals etc. I am grateful for their help.

Mr. Tapan Dev of W.B.T.E.A, Birpara and Mr. Badal Ghosh of Jalpaiguri introduced me with some of the prominent trade union leaders. I express my gratefulness to both of them.

I also would like to express my cordial thanks to Miss Mousumi Munshi an alumni of University of North Bengal, Dr. Moloy Sen of University of North Bengal, Mr. Biplob Roy of Birpara, Mr. Rabin Majumdar and Mr. Ghutu Majumdar of Metelli, Mr. Nihar Bhowmik of Delhi, Mrs. Meenaskhi Bhowmik of Delhi for providing me inspiration, warm hospitality and help in various ways during the gestation period of this thesis.

Immense help from Mr. Somnath Sarkar, an alumni of Presidency College, Calcutta who meticulously went through the manuscript and Miss Papri Dey of Birpara who translated the Hindi booklets and literatures for me. I would like to extend my thanks to them.

Mr. Salil Chatterjee of Indian Statistical Institute, Giridih provided me generous support. Mr. Deepak Mandal and Mr. Ganesh Mahato typed the preliminary draft and Mrs. Susmita Pal of Salt Lake typed the final version. I acknowledge their help.

Lastly, I would like to express my deep acknowledgement to the trade union leaders of Terai and Docars regions and the workers of the tea gardens for their sincere co-operation and assistance.

(Kanchan Sarker)