

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

My interest in District Primary Education Programme (Henceforth, DPEP) was developed during those days of finalisation of the Draft Plan of DPEP for the district of Cooch Behar. Observing my interest, Dr. Sankar Kumar Acherjee, Reader in Ag. Ext., BCKV, Mohanpur, Nadia, suggested that I should undertake research on DPEP, Cooch Behar under the guidance of Dr. D. K. Sarkar, Reader in the Department of Political Science, Presidency College, Calcutta. I am most grateful to Dr. D. K. Sarkar who is presently, Controller of Examinations, North Bengal University, for giving me scope to work under his supervision. The submission of this work in the form of a thesis would not have been possible without the active support, academic care and guidance of my research supervisor Dr. D. K. Sarkar and Co-supervisor, Dr. D. J. Bhowmik, Professor of Political Science, North Bengal University. In fact, they have enlightened me to understand the principal issues of my research problems both conceptually and operationally.

I take the opportunity to express my indebtedness and gratitude to teachers of Political Science Faculty, North Bengal University, specially, Dr. Pradip Kumar Sengupta, Professor of Political Science and Dean, Faculty of Arts.

I like to acknowledge my indebtedness to Mr. Rajib Sinha, I. A. S., Former State Project Director, WBDPEP, Calcutta, Sri Dibya Gopal Ghatak, Dy. SPD, WBDPEP, Mr. Utthan Pada Samanta, Former In-charge

Last but not least, I owe a sense of gratitude to my parents and my wife Ria and our little sweet daughter Trisha for providing me ceaseless support and inspiration to complete this work.
