

LIST OF TABLES, DIAGRAM AND MAPS

Tables

- 2 : 1 Category-wise distribution of the non-professional colleges in the five districts of North Bengal.
- 2 : 2 Universe of the Study.
- 2 : 3 The Sample (1979 - 1980).
- 4 : 1 Attitudes of students towards the class-room activities of a teacher : Whether the class-room activities of a teacher are important in forming an image of the teacher in the minds of students.
- 4 : 2 Attitudes of teachers towards research : Whether they are engaged in it.
- 4 : 3 Attitudes of teachers towards research and teaching : Whether research and teaching are complementary.
- 4 : 4 Attitudes of students towards a teacher who is excellent in class-room performance and kind to students : Whether students are respectful to such a teacher.
- 4 : 5 Students' views : Whether they find their teachers sympathetic to them.
- 4 : 6 Students' views : Whether they like a worse-performing unscholastic but kind teacher.
- 4 : 7 Students' views : Whether they like a well-performing scholastic but authoritarian teacher.
- 4 : 8 Teachers' views : Whether mental qualifications of a teacher are more important than his educational qualifications.
- 4 : 9 Attitudes of students towards their teachers : Whether teachers are able to satisfy their students (by their total behaviour including teaching and personal behaviour).
- 4 : 10 Students' views : Whether they find their teachers easy of access and willing to spend their time on students in matters of their studies etc.

- 4 : 11 Students' views : Whether they find teachers, among their teachers, whom they like to emulate.
- 4 : 12 Students' views : Whether malpractice in examination-halls is encouraged by the negligence of the invigilating teachers.
- 4 : 13 Students' views : Whether malpractice in the examination halls can be curbed by the united stand of invigilating teachers against it.
- 4 : 14 Attitudes of students towards the personal lives of their teachers : Whether they are influenced by the personal lives of their teachers in forming an attitude of respect or disrespect to the teacher concerned.
- 4 : 15 Attitudes of teachers towards colleges with different managements : Whether difference in character of managements is a cause for the attitudes of indifference among teachers of colleges with different managements.
- 4 : 16 Attitudes of teachers of one subject towards those of another : Whether teachers of one subject (say, Economics) have attitudes of neglect to those of another subject (say, Bengali).
- 4 : 17 Attitudes of teachers of one faculty to those of another : Whether teachers of Science do not have high opinion about those of Arts.
- 4 : 18 Attitudes of teachers of Arts and Science towards those of Commerce : Whether teachers of Commerce are more material in their outlooks than those of Arts and Science.
- 4 : 19 Attitudes of university teachers towards college-teachers : Whether it is not respectful.
- 4 : 20 Teachers' views : If there are cases of insults on them by their students.
- 4 : 21 Students' views : Whether they know of any case of insult on their teachers.
- 4 : 22 Students' opinion asto what qualities they expect to find in their teachers.
- 4 : 23 Teachers' views : Causes of insults on teachers by their students.
- 4 : 24 Students' views : Causes of insults on teachers by their students.
- 5 : 1 Attitudes of teachers towards political party : Whether they support a particular political party.

- 5 : 2 Attitudes of teachers towards active political support : Whether they are active supporters of one or other political party.
- 5 : 3 Students' views : Whether the uncommitted teachers are more concerned with politics than with serious studies and teaching.
- 5 : 4 Attitudes of teachers towards students : Whether students are influenced by the political opinion of their teachers.
- 5 : 5 Students' views : Whether they support a particular political party.
- 5 : 6 Attitudes of teachers towards grouping among teachers : Whether it encourages groupism among students.
- 5 : 7 Attitudes of teachers towards Students' Union : Whether it is necessary to safeguard the interests of students.
- 5 : 8 Attitudes of teachers towards grouping among teachers : Whether they are divided into groups.
- 5 : 9 Students' views : Whether their teachers are divided into a number of groups.
- 5 : 10 Teachers' views : Bases of grouping among teachers.
- 5 : 11 Attitudes of teachers towards Principal.
- 5 : 12 Attitudes of non-teaching staff towards the principal.
- 6 : 1 Attitudes of teachers towards the general relation between teaching and non-teaching staff : Whether it is strained.
- 6 : 2 Non-teaching staff's views : Whether there is an undercurrent of tension between teaching and non-teaching staff in their colleges.
- 6 : 3 Students' views : Whether they are aware that teaching and non-teaching staff of their colleges are not, in general, respectful to one another.
- 6 : 4 Teachers' views : Basic causes of strained relation between teaching and non-teaching staff.
- 6 : 5 Non-teaching staff's views : Causes of the strained relation between non-teaching staff and teachers.
- 6 : 6 Non-teaching staff's views : Whether teachers insist they be respected by them (non-teaching staff).
- 6 : 7 Non-teaching staff's attitudes towards teachers' claim of respect from them (non-teaching staff).

- 6 : 8 Attitudes of teachers towards the head clerk : Whether he is the most important person in a college administration.
- 6 : 9 Attitudes of teachers towards principal's dependence upon the head clerk in running the day-to-day college administration : Whether it strengthens the position of the head clerk.
- 6 : 10 Non-teaching staff's views : Whether Principal is very much dependent upon the head clerk.
- 6 : 11 Attitudes of students towards the head clerk.
- 6 : 12 Attitudes of teachers towards the fourth grade employees of the colleges : Whether the fourth grade employees are the most dissatisfied people.
- 6 : 13 Non-teaching staff's views : Whether teachers are divided into pro-office and anti-office blocks.
- 6 : 14 Attitudes of teachers towards the non-teaching staff : Whether non-teaching staff care for a select few among teachers for their own interests.
- 6 : 15 Teachers' views : Whether teachers and Governing Body members are not usually respectful to one another.
- 6 : 16 Teachers views : Basic causes of the loss of mutual respect between Governing Body members and teachers.
- 6 : 17 Teachers' views : Whether relation between Governing Body members and the non-teaching employees is less tense.
- 6 : 18 Non-teaching staff's views : Whether relation between non-teaching staff and Governing Body members is less tense.
- 6 : 19 Teachers' views : Basic causes of the less tense relation between the Governing Body members and the non-teaching staff.
- 6 : 20 Non-teaching staff's views : Basic causes of less tense relation between Governing Body members and non-teaching staff.

Diagram :

- 1 : 4 Relation-patterns.

Maps : Map of North Bengal and its position in the Indian map.