

(ix)

LIST OF TABLES

Sl. No.	Name	Table No.	Page
CHAPTER - IV
1.	Number of divorce cases between 1914-1954	1	131
2.	Number of divorce cases reported in different High Courts	2	132
3.	Cause of action in divorce cases 1914-1955	3	134
4.	Number of divorce cases decreed or declined between 1914-1954	4	140
5.	Number of male and female petitioners (1914-1954)	5	141
6.	Number of cases decided in favour of men and women	6	142
7.	Number of cases filed between 1955 and 1990	7	149
8.	Number of cases filed during the decades and half decades	8	150
9.	Number of cases in each High Courts	9	153
10.	Zonal Analysis	9A	154
11.	Differential reporting	10	160
12.	Number of cases under each ground between the years 1955 and 1990	11	161
13.	Allegation of Cruelty	12	162
14.	Allegation of desertion by men and women	13	163
15.	Allegation of adultery	14	164
16.	Number of male and female appellants	15	165
17.	Trends in decision making	16	166
18.	Inclinations in decision making	17	169
19.	Number of years of marriage and divorce	18	178
20.	Relation between couples with or without children and divorce	19	179
21.	Cases where women were employed	20	180
CHAPTER - V
22.	Number of divorce cases at Calcutta High Court from 1955 to 1990	1	186
23.	Rising trend of the divorce cases	2	187

(x)

Sl. No.	Name	Table No.	Page
24.	Number of cases filed under each ground	3	188
25.	Allegation by the parties to the suit under the grounds of adultery, cruelty and desertion	4	192
26.	Number of male and female appellants	5	195
27.	Divorce: Decreed and declined	6	198
28.	The decision in favour of men and women	7	199
29.	Duration of Marriage	8	201
30.	Number of couples with children	9	201
31.	Number of Cases under each caste	10	203
CHAPTER VI
32.	Total number of cases at the district level	1	207
33.	Cases between 1984-1990 in each forum	2	208
34.	Review of the grounds used frequently	3	210
35.	Allegation of cruelty by males and females	4	212
36.	Number of adultery cases between 1984-1990 at the three levels	5	214
37.	The Allegers of Adultery at the three levels	6	215
38.	Incidents of desertion at the three levels	7	216
39.	Allegation of cruelty by men and women	8	217
40.	The male and female petitioners	9	218
41.	Trends in decision making	10	219
42.	Rate of grant and decline of divorce	11	220
43.	Decision favouring men and women	12	222
44.	Number of Ex parte divorce	13	223
45.	Subsistence of marriage in national and state level	14	226
46.	Subsistence of marriage at the district level	15	227
47.	Parties with children at the three levels	16	229

Sl. No.	Name	Table No.	Page
48.	The Caste factors in divorce	17	231
CHAPTER VII
49.	Total number of cases interviewed	1	236
50.	Age of the parties	2	238
51.	Educational background of parties	3	239
52.	Occupational background of the parties	4	241
53.	Type of employment undertaken by women	4A	242
54.	Type of Employment undertaken by men	4B	243
55.	Financial background of the parties	5	244
56.	Divorce in various castes	6	248
57.	Divorce in different marriage forms	7	249
58.	Nature of marriage	8	252
59.	Subsistence of marriage	9	253
60.	Percentage of the type of marriage between men and women	9A	254
61.	Table correlating type of marriage with duration and type of marriage	9B	254
62.	Grounds for divorce	10	257
63.	Bigamy and extra marital affair	10A	258
64.	Adultery in different income group	10B	260
65.	Adultery and literacy	10C	261
66.	Age and Sex ratio in adultery	10D	262
67.	Different types of cruelty	11	266
68.	Cruelty and income group	11A	267
69.	Cruelty and literacy	11B	268
70.	Age and sex ratio factors in cruelty	11C	269
71.	Different types of desertion	12	271
72.	Desertion in different income group	12A	272
73.	Desertion in different educational group	12B	273
74.	Age and sex ratio in desertion	12C	274
75.	Cases in which legal recourse was taken	13	276
76.	De facto De Jure divorce	14	276

(xii)

Sl.	Name	Table No.	Page
77.	The proposal of the divorce was made by	15	277
78.	The petitioners in the cases were	16	278
79.	Where do these estranged parties live?	17	280
80.	Person with children	18	281
81.	Maintenance received by and given to wife and children	19	281
82.	Custody of children	20	282
83.	Maintenance received and given	21	283
84.	Should one retain marriage at any cost?	22	286
85.	If there was no right to divorce could you have reconciled with marriage?	23	287
86.	Should divorce law be made more liberal?	24	289
87.	Given the same set of circumstances would you repeat your actions again	25	291
88.	Are you willing to remarry?	26	293
89.	Should all divorcees remarry?	27	294
90.	Will this experience help you to build a better home in future?	28	294
91.	Have you been able to get back your pre marriage independence?	29	297
92.	In retrospect, do you blame any one other than than your spouse for the divorce?	30	298
93.	Do you view divorce as a death of a relationship	31	299
94.	How is your relationship with your natal family	32	301
95.	Does your being a divorcee affect the marriage of your siblings?	33	302
96.	Does the society stigmatise you for being a divorcee?	34	303
97.	Details of remarriage	35	304
98.	Is your present spouse a divorcee?	36	304

(xiii)

Sl. No.	Name	Table No.	Page
99.	Comments and suggestions	37	305

CHAPTER VIII

100	Number of maintenance cases between 1914-1954	1	360
101	Maintenance Cases between 1955-1990	2	363
102.	Trend of the maintenance cases	3	364
103.	Amount of maintenance awarded	4	365
104.	Trend between 1984-1990	5	366
105.	Amount of maintenance granted (1984-1990)	6	367
106.	Maintenance cases at the sub divisional level	7	370
107.	Trend in the decision making at the sub-divisional level	8	372
108.	Maintenance amount at the sub divisional level	9	373