

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	i-ii
1. Chapter-I : The Concept of Imagination : A Historical perspective.	1
i) Plato on Imagination : The General Position concerning the Knowledge.	2
ii) Imaginative Devices used by Plato	3
iii) Imagination in Knowledge and Poetry	7
iv) Imagination in Plato : A Dilema ?	8
v) Myths and Imagination in the Dialogues	11
2. Chapter : II - Imagination : History of the Concept	15
i) Classical and Medieval	15
ii) Renaissance to Romantics	17
3. Chapter III : Kant's Treatment of Imagination	28
i) Some Critical Concepts in the Critical Philosophy... ..	30
ii) Kant and Hume - A brief comparison	34
iii) Metaphysical Deduction	36
iv) The Transcendental Deduction	38
v) Transcendental Imagination and Transcendental Schema	40
vi) Transcendental and Empirical Imagination	40
vii) Imagination in the Analogies of Experience	45
viii) Imagination in the Critique of Practical Reason and in the Critique of Judgement	47
4. Appendix to Chapter III	53
i) Romanticism	53
5. Chapter-IV : Coleridge I : Philosophical Background	63
6. Chapter - V : Coleridge II	67
7. Chapter - VI : Coleridge III Imagination and Language of Poetry	84

8. Chapter-VII : Rabindra Nath Tagore and Aesthetic Imagination.	100
9. Chapter VIII : Imagination : Rabindra Nath Tagore II		120
10. Chapter - IX : Concluding Remarks	126
11. Appendix : The Indian theory of Imagination	134
12. Select Bibliography	141

.....