

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express most sincere gratitude to Dr. PabitraKumar Roy, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University for guiding me in my research work. His vast Knowledge, incisive questions, constant attention and above all his patience during the years of my work have been vital in completion of the thesis. I would like to express my special thanks to Dr. Pabitra Kumar Roy for his valuable suggestions during writing of the thesis and his effort in going through it.

I am grateful to the Head of the Department of Philosophy; North Bengal University for giving me the Departmental permission and facilities to carry out the research project. My sincere thanks to Dr. Chandidas Bhattacharya for giving me encouragement while I was carrying research work. I would like to thank the staffs of the Department of Philosophy and Library, North Bengal University for helping me in different occasions. Mr. Tapan Gupta, Assistant Librarian took pain in many occasions to find out the particular copy of the journals during my library work. He deserves a special thank. I like to express my appreciation for the necessary permission and kind help from the administration of the university.

I would like to appreciate very much the encouragement of Dr. (Mrs.)Ratnabali Roy. Thanks are also due to my nephew Mr. Sanjay Banerjee, M.Sc. for his constant encouragement. I am happy to express my thanks to Prof. Swapan Majumdar, I.I.T. Kharagpur, for his encouragement. I valued the support received from Prof. Nirendra Nath Chowdhury, retired Professor of the Department of Sociology, North Bengal University.

This acknowledgement will not be complete without mentioning the gratitude and constant encouragement that I have received from my husband Prof. Ashim

Kumar Chakravarty. It is difficult to express in words my gratitude and indebtedness to my daughter, Anindita and son Anupam for their co-operation and sacrifice throughout my research work.

I am particularly indebted to my mother for her support, wishful blessings, constant encouragement and affection throughout my research work.

I render my thanks to Mr. Chanchal Paul who took the trouble of typing the first draft of the thesis.

Alo Chakravarty

Alo Chakravarty