

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me the greatest pleasure to acknowledge my deepest gratitude to Professor S. K. Sen, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University. Without his guidance and kind help, it would have been impossible for me to complete my thesis. I am deeply indebted to him for the encouragement he has given me in the pursuit of my studies.

I am thankful to Professor R.R.Verma, Department of Philosophy, Lucknow University and Dr. M.N. Mitra, Reader in Philosophy at Jadavpur University, for giving their valuable suggestions. I wish to express my gratefulness to Professor T.K.Sarkar of Jadavpur University and Dr. Pabitra Roy, Department of Philosophy, North Bengal University, for going through the concluding chapter and giving their suggestions.

I am also indebted to Lucknow University Library, Library of I.I.T., Kanpur and Allahabad University Library. In the initial stages of the work, I borrowed books and utilised all the facilities from these libraries.

II

My affectionate and special thanks are due to my husband, father-in-law, mother-in-law and very young children Deepti and Sumit. They surrounded me with love, warmth and moral support. Their patience, sacrifice and tolerance, enabled me to bring this work to completion.

Lastly, I wish to give my thanks to Mr Santanu Biswas of Computers Unlimited and Mr S.Emron M.Shah of Graphicomps, Kanpur for printing the same in record time.
