

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present study has been completed under the supervision of Dr. Kanak Kanti Bagchi, Professor in Economics, North Bengal University, to whom I express my deep sense of gratitude. It would not have been possible to complete the work without his inspiration and learned guidance. He always extended his valuable advice and suggestion in completing my research work. As his research scholar, I found him as a great personality as well as good human being which is very rare. I also express my gratitude to Mrs. Tanusri Bagchi (saha), wife of my supervisor, for her hospitality, affection and inspiration. I also express my heartfelt gratitude to all the Professors of Department of Economics, North Bengal University for their valuable suggestions.

I have been lucky enough to get lots of help, support and advice from Dr. Dilip Kumar Ghosh, former Senior Research Officer of the State Institute of Panchayats and Rural Development (SIPRD) of the Ministry of Panchayati Raj, Government of West Bengal located at Kalyani, Nadia. His inspiration and suggestions have immensely helped me to complete my work. I also express my heartiest gratitude to Professor Biswajeet Chatterjee, Department of Economics, Jadavpur University for his valuable advice. I duly acknowledge the support provided by Professor Nihar Ranjan Majumdar (Rtd.), Uttar Banga Krishi Vishwavidalaya.

I would like to give special thanks to the library staffs of SIPRD and specially Mr. Himadri Chakraborty who supported me in collection of data from Nadia district.

I would like to thank the office staffs of various Anchal Offices in Cooch Behar and Nadia districts. I also convey my gratitude to the different respondents like Panchayat Pradhans, Panchayat members and villagers in both the districts who provided valuable information related with my study.

No words are perhaps adequate enough to express my debts to my husband Wg. Cdr. H. Raj and my sweet little son Mr. Akash. My husband supported me, encouraged me and helped me lots from my data collection to completion of my thesis. Without his accompany it could not be possible to collect data from the backward villages which are mainly situated on boarder areas. I also give special thanks to Boarder Security Force Personnel who gave me right direction about the location of houses of Panchayat members situated on Indo-Bangladesh border.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my mother, Smt. Shaila Rani Saha for her blessings. I also express thanks to all my relatives, friends and colleagues who encouraged me for completing the work.

I would like to give special thanks to office staffs of Guest House and Economics Department of North Bengal University. I also express my gratitude to Mr. Dilip Singh in the PhD cell of North Bengal University for his kind assistance and valuable information related to PhD registration and submission.

Lastly I express thanks to Dhar Brothers, Maniktala, Kolkata for their computer settings and designing.
