

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my heartiest gratitude to my guide Dr. Ali Mehdi to whom I shall remain indebted for his never-ending concerns and warm encouragement through the period of this research. The research could neither have been embarked upon nor completed in its present state, without his sensible dealing.

He came to my rescue in moments of diffidence, reducing my confusion to clarity, rendering confidence & encouragement at each step. I keep in mind this record as the sign of a great debt that can never be repaid in life.

I express my respect and gratitude to Dr. B.P.Dwivedi, Reader, Department of Law, NBU, for some of his valued suggestions imparted while pursuing my work in the initial stage.

I express my profound respect and gratitude to Prof I.G.Ahmad, Head & Dean, Dept. of Law, Calcutta University & Dr. A.K.Pandey, Department of Law, Banaras Hindu University, for their affectionate and valuable moral support during this research project.

I express my heartiest gratitude to Prof. Gangotri Chakraborty, Gujrat Law University, for her valuable guidance rendered while initiating my topic and helping me out to give a positive direction to my work, without which I could not have proceeded further.

I am very much gratified by the broad support and co-operation received from my friend Dr. Atul Kr.Tiwari, Lecturer, Department of Law, NBU, for his valuable suggestion.

I am acknowledging my father, mother and all my family members for all the encouragement they had given to pursue an academic career.

Last but not the least, I want to thank my wife Madhumita Sarkar, Lecturer, Haldia Law College, for his interesting suggestions and help in odd hours, my sons Swapnoneel & Ryan, thank you to bear with me.

Thanks are due to Subhradeep & Sreemoyee for helping me to bring out this work in printed form.

Finally, my only regret is because of the lapse of memory to mention each and every individual directly or indirectly who made contributions and deserve my gratitude. To them I extend my thanks and apologies.
