

C O N T E N T S

		Page No.
Preface	: ...	ii - iii
Acknowledgement	: ...	iv - vi
CHAPTER-I	: Introduction–The Problem - Conceptual Framework	1 - 18
I.I.	Objectives of the Proposed Study
I.II.	Overview of Literature
I.III.	Research Questions
I.IV.	Methodology
I.V.	Chapterwise Break-up (Plan of the Study)
CHAPTER-II	: Review of the Indian Social Order - Basic Features and Contradictions	19 - 72
II.I.	Indian Social Order in Ancient Period
II.II.	Theories of the Origin of the Hindu Social Order
II.III.	Theories of the four Varnas
II.IV.	Anti-Caste Movement
II.V.	Social Order in Various Periods in India
II.VI.	Dr. Ambedkar's Views on Hindu Social Order
CHAPTER-III	: Role of Caste and Religion in India- Ambedkar's Own Conception	73 - 135
III.I.	Ambedkar's Interpretation of Religion
III.II.	Ambedkar's Interpretation of Religion and Dharma
III.III.	Emancipation of Untouchability through Religious Conversion
III.IV.	Ambedkar and Buddhism
III.V.	Buddhist Movement in India
III.VI.	Dr. Ambedkar's Conversion to Buddhism
III.VII.	Ambedkar's Views on Hinduism
III.VIII.	Dr. Ambedkar's Interpretation of Dhamma, Addhamma and Saddhamma
III.IX.	Ambedkar's Interpretation of Rebirth, Karma, Ahimsa, and Transmigration
CHAPTER-IV	: Ambedkar's Thought Process – His Views On Caste and Related Issues	136 - 221

- IV.I. Dr. Ambedkar's Analysis of Caste
- IV.II. Dr. Ambedkar's Views on Annihilation of Caste
- IV.III. Dr. Ambedkar's Views on Origin of the Untouchables
- IV.IV. 'Who Were the Mahars'?
- IV.V. Mahad Satyagraha Movement
- IV.VI. Kalaram Temple Entry Satyagraha Movement
- IV.VII. Poona Pact and Depressed Classes
- IV.VIII. Bahishkrit Hitakarini Sabha
- IV.IX. The People's Education Society, Mumbai
- IV.X. Depressed Class Institute
- IV.XI. Independent Labour Party and Depressed Classes
- IV.XII. Social Centre for the Untouchables in Bombay
- IV.XIII. Republican Party of India
- IV.XIV. All India Scheduled Caste Federation
- IV.XV. Dr. Ambedkar and Cabinet Mission
- IV.XVI. Special Conferences for Upliftment of the Depressed Classes
- IV.XVII. The Election Manifesto of the Scheduled Caste Federation
- IV.XVIII. Samata Sainik Dal

CHAPTER-V : Ambedkar and his Idea of Just Society- 222 - 319
Basic Foundation

- V.I. Abolition of Caste System
- V.II. Renunciation of Hinduism and Embraced Buddhism
- V.III. Dr. Ambedkar and Empowerment of Women
- V.IV. Dr. Ambedkar's Concept of Democracy
- V.V. Dr. Ambedkar's Concept of State Socialism
- V.VI. Dr. Ambedkar's Theory of Fundamental Rights
- V.VII. Dr. Ambedkar's Concept of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity
- V.VIII. Way to Establish a Just Society
- V.IX. Dr. Ambedkar and Quest for Social Justice
- V.X. An Architect of Indian Constitution
- V.XI. Ambedkar's Concept of Nationalism

CHAPTER-VI : Conclusion 320 - 324

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY : 325 - 353

APPENDIX-I :

APPENDIX-II :

Appendix - III :