

Contents

INTRODUCTION	:		1-08
CHAPTER - I	:	Condition of Education in Pre-Colonial and Colonial Bengal - An overview	09-47
		A. Condition of Education in Pre-Colonial Bengal
		a. Education in Ancient Bengal
		b. Education in Medieval Bengal
		I. Primary Education
		II. Secondary and Higher Education
		i. Education in the Madrasas
		ii. Female Education
		iii. Education of the Hindus
		iv. Education in the Tols (Sanskrit learning)
		B. Condition of Education in Colonial Bengal
		The Spread of Western Education in Bengal
		a. Non-Government Efforts
		b. Contributions of the Missionaries
		c. Initiatives of the Government
		i. The Committee of the Public Instruction
		ii. Macanlay's Minute and Bentinck's Educational Resolution, 1835
		iii. Wood's Educational Despatch, 1854
		iv. The University Act, 1857
		v. The Indian Education (Hunter) Commission, 1882
		vi. University Reforms Act, 1904
		vii. The Calcutta University (Sadler) Commission, 1917
CHAPTER - II	:	Perspectives	48-78
		A. The Idea and Origin of the Rajshahi College B. Establishment of the College
		i. Introduction of Fundamental and Optional Subjects
		ii. The Developmental Scheme of the Rajshahi College
		iii. Admission of the Girls' Students
		iv. Department of Law, Rajshahi College
		v. Academic Results
		vi. Buildings and Accomodations

CHAPTER - III	:	Administrative Setup and Academic Pursuits	79-103
		i. The Principals, Academic Staff and Standard of Education
		ii. The College Governing Body.
		iii. Student Pattern and Numerical Strength
CHAPTER- IV	:	Growth and Prospects	104-147
		a. Personalities Behind the Institution i. Donors, Patrons and Elite's
		ii. Scholarships, Prizes, College Medals and Stipends
		b. Rajshahi College as a Centre of Higher Learning
		i. College Library
		ii. Residence of Students iii. Academic and Non-academic Activities
		c. Rajshahi College and her Sister Academic Institutions
		i. Rajshahi Madrasa
		ii. Rani Hemanta Kumari Sanskrit College
		iii. Basanta Kumar Agricultural Institute
CHAPTER- V	:	Rajshahi College in the Making of its Glory	148-180
		a. Contributions in Socio-political Life in Colonial and Post-colonial Period
		b. Rajshahi College and its First Generation - Selected Studies
CONCLUSION	:		181-183
APPENDICES	:		184-211
		I. Succession List of Principals, Rajshahi College
		II. Teaching Staff, Rajshahi College
		III. Hostel Superintendents
		IV. Students Union, Rajshahi College
		V. Magazine Editors of Rajshahi College
		VI. Meretorius Students of Rajshahi College
		VII. Examination Results, Rajshahi College
		VIII. Tution Fees of Rajshahi College
		IX. Holidays & Vacations, Rajshahi College, 1934
		X. Rajshahi College at a glance, 2000-2001
BIBLIOGRAPHY	:		212-221