The recent movement for a Separate Kamatapuri State in North Bengal has encouraged me to undertake a research work connected with the territory of Kāmetā Koch Kingdom. I am proud and fortunate enough to work under the guidance of my teacher Dr. Pranab Kumar Bhattacharyya, Jadunath Sarkar Professor of History, North Bengal University.

I record my gratefulness for the valuable suggestions made by Dr. R.D.Choudhury, Director of Museums of Assam, Mr. Gautam Chattopadhyay, President of the Paschimanga Itihas Samad, Dr. N.H.Acharyya, Gauhati University and Ms. Mahasheta Debi. I am also deeply indebted to Mr. Nirmal Chandra Choudhuri, Jalpaiguri, Dr. Nripen Paul, Cooch Behar, Mr. Shekar Sarkar, Principal, Cooch Behar College, Dr. S.C.Ghosal, Lecturer, Cooch Behar (University) College, Dr. Shymal Chandra Guha Roy, Lecturer, Kurseong College and Mr. Subir Biswas and others for their various help which I have received on several occasions.

I also express my gratefulness specially to the Librarians and staff of Cooch Behar District Library,

North Bengal University Library, Writers' Buildings Library, Islampur College Library and Calcutta Archives for their valuable help to complete my work.

I like to take the opportunity to thank Dr. Tapes Chatterjee, Registrar of North Bengal University for his encouragement and help to complete this work. I also record my gratefulness to Sri Bidyut Kumar Sarker, Principal, Islampur College and all of my colleagues who had helped and encouraged me during the period of my work.

Lastly, I must mention the name of Mrs. Ruby Bhattacharyya and Mrs. Nila Sen for their encouragement and active support to carry out the research work.
