

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The world of tea with its unique aroma and graceful ethos has always attracted and fascinated me. The colourful history of Indian Tea and its wonderful people with their variegated activities is remarkable and endlessly engrossing. I had to travel a lot during the course of study. I also had to prepare interview transcripts and notes from field visits and personal records, official records, reports, journals, periodicals, company balance sheets, annual reports, previous publications by planters, tea experts, corporate executives, tea companies, associations and the like. It was a truly mammoth task to distil the essence from my researches to fit into the limited space available to me. Personally I can say, it has been a very enriching trip down the tea lane.

I am indebted to my honourable teacher and thesis supervisor, Dr. Prof. M. M. Jana, Department of Geography and Applied Geography, University of North Bengal, India for his valuable guidance at different stages of preparation of this thesis. It would have been quite impossible to carry on the research work and bring it to final shape without his valuable suggestions and continuous encouragement.

I am also extremely grateful to Dr. S. E. Kabir, Academic Co-Ordinator post Graduate Diploma in Tea Management N. B. U. for providing necessary documents. My sincere thanks to the manager of Bhojnarain, Mr. Ranju Majumdar, Dr. Sitansubimal Karamjai, Professor of Mathematics, North Bengal University.

I am grateful to the officers, librarians of Tea Board, Calcutta, Survey of India and Geological survey of India providing me necessary, data, maps and literature for the completion of my work.

I am also grateful to all the managers, staffs, workers and local people of the tea gardens for helping me in collecting data for study. I offer my sincere thanks to all of them.

I am indebted to my respected teachers of the Department of Geography and Applied Geography, N. B. U. I am also equally thankful to Late Smt. Krishna Jana for her inspiration and valuable suggestion.

My special thanks to my dad Mr. Subhas Bhattacharya and mom Mrs. Madhumita Bhattacharya who has been a constant source of strength and encouragement. I would also like to thank my sisters for their support.

Finally, I owe a deep debt of gratitude to my husband Mr. Sanjib Debray, Senior Technical Analyst IBM who has been a paragon of patience and dedication, helping in creative development and refining the ideas, concepts, and framework. My family members are truly the wind beneath my wings, and I could never have flown without them.
